We suppose, however, the answer is that whenever any private citizen collects the proof and swears to a complaint the officer of the law will consider the matter.

A Summer Substitute for Meat

In the August Woman's Home Companion Fannie Merritt Farmer gives a number of hot-weather substitutes for meat. One such substitute consists of cheese and macaroni croquettes:

"Break macaroni in half inch pieces, there should be two thirds of a cupful. Cook in boiling salted water until soft, drain in a colander, and pour over two cupfuls of cold water, to prevent pieces from adhering. Add thick white sauce made of two and one half tablespoonfuls of butter, one third cupful of flour, one cupful of milk, one fourth of a teaspoonful of salt and a few grains of pepper, then add one third of a cupful of grated cheeese. Spread on a plate to cool. Shape, dip in crumbs, eggs and crumbs again, fry in deep fat and drain on brown paper."
