

There is a new discovery of coal within three miles of Scappoose station. The samples shown are taken from the surface and no development work has been done. It is lignite but seems of better quality, brighter and heavier than any we have yet seen. There is an easy down grade to the railroad, and it would seem that it could be put upon the market at fair price to compete with wood as fuel in Portland.

DIED—At his home, one and one half miles west of Scappoose, Isaac N. Moore, at 7 a. m. Friday, August 7, of heart failure. He had been suffering with this disease for some time. Friday morning, while his wife was getting breakfast, she heard him call and ran in just as he breathed his last. He leaves a wife and two sons. He had been employed by Watts & Price as engineer for the past six months.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT—Seth Brinn, twelve years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Brinn, of Yankton, was accidentally killed last Tuesday afternoon by the discharge of a shotgun in his own hands. He was out hunting birds for craw fish bait, and it is supposed that in climbing over a log his foot slipped and the gun was discharged, a few shots striking him below the right breast, but the greater portion of the charge entering the head near the right jaw. He was horribly mangled, the side of his face being laid open and part of his ear torn away. It is thought he was instantly killed. Coroner Sherwood investigated the case and found a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

James Wilson, a logger working for the Case Lumber Co., at Rainier, met instant death Wednesday as a result of an accident. Wilson, in company with other men, was trying to balance a log for loading on the car when it became unmanageable, one end going to the ground and the other rising twenty feet in the air. A man named Post had hold of the log with Wilson, but when it started up, Post let go his hold, but Wilson did not. When the log struck the ground Wilson's hold was broken and he fell heavily on the ground, striking his shoulder in such a manner as to break his neck.]

VERNONIA.

Mr. McDonald, of Pebble Creek, was seen on our streets sporting a new horse and buggy last Saturday. That is all right, Mac, but don't say you bought it for the baby.

Mrs. Malmsten and V. S. Malmsten are much improved since the runaway a week ago Sunday.

Mr. R. Rogers went to Portland Monday to buy a new light wagon. Grave roads are alright but not the easiest to ride over in a lumber wagon.

Campmeeting at the camp grounds until next Saturday.

Alex. Sword is cutting grain for his neighbors this week. He says the grain is alright, but the stump area nuisance.

PITTSBURG

These are the nice dreamy summer days that we like to think of during the winter.

Josh Rose and Ed Sessman passed through town on their way to Clatskanie Friday.

Mr. Jacob George and daughter Anne, of St. Helens, are camping near Pittsburg.

A large crowd of young people from here attended camp meeting at Vernonia Sunday evening.

While we were passing a certain house in this vicinity Sunday, we heard blood curdling yells issuing forth and hastened to ascertain the trouble. We were just in time to rescue two young ladies from instant death—caused from heart failure because a kuk had wandered in through an open door. One young lady did not know what it was, but "was sure it was a young bear."

Mr. Johns and daughter, and Miss Lois Clear, of St. Helens, are camping at the "Diamond O."

Mr. Lovell, of Mist, was doing business in Pittsburg and Vernonia Saturday.

Albert Parker made a flying trip to Clatskanie Saturday.

Girls are coming down in Clatskanie; in fact one came down so hard Saturday evening that she will remember it for some time.

Miss Osa Hemple is visiting at the country home of Mrs. Tom Carter this week.

McKey came in from his railroad claim Monday. He says those out there are doing lots of work and making their homes comfortable.

The excursion Sunday to Skamokawa surprised people in general. The Laxaball boys chartered the Prat Miller, from Astoria. The water was so low that the boat could only get as far as the Clatskanie Company's Mill, and the crowd was so large that some went on the small boat, Pearl, and some went on the train to Clifton, and from there on to Skamokawa in launches. Clatskanie is coming to the front. The boys came out victorious again; the game stood 13 to 24 in favor of Clatskanie.

The Alder Grove baseball boys came in Sunday to play Mist, but they failed to show up. So a team was scouted up among what boys was left in town, and Alder Grove had things their own way, ending with 9 to 24 in favor of Alder Grove.

Isaac Olulla passed away with heart disease at his home Sunday morning. He was laid to rest in the cemetery south of town Monday afternoon. He was sixty years old and leaves a young wife and six very small children.

George Sutherland met with a very serious accident Friday evening. He was making repairs on the water works and had made two trips to turn the water off, but as the repairs did not hold he went the third time to the reservoir over a half mile away, and, as he was leaning over, his gun, a .41-caliber, fell out of his pocket and went off, shooting him in the right side, the ball passing entirely through his body. He picked up his lantern and walked home. Parties went to meet him and helped him. He was taken to Portland Saturday morning, and at last report he was doing nicely.

Mr. J. N. Rice gave a lawn party Saturday evening on the Omar Bryant place. Dancing was one of the features of the evening. Refreshments were served on the grounds.

J. W. McDonald returned Monday evening, after spending a few days with Mr. Sutherland in Portland.

Mrs. Wm. Chandler was a Portland visitor Saturday.

There are a great many strange people coming and going. Some fishing, some camping, and others looking up interest in the Nehalem Valley.

The railroad that is going to come through town looks good to every one. The surveyors are on the other side of the mountain, and everything so far is O. K.

The Ashton-Branscombe Company played here Thursday evening and was enjoyed by all. The house was large considering the short time they had for advertising.
