GRASSES WANTED

Now is the time to send in the best specimens procurable of Grasses and Forage Plants. I want as large a collection of these as possible for Columbia County's exhibit at the State Fair. I know the season has been unfavorable, but it has been better in Columbia County than in many other sections of the State with which we may have to compete. There is nothing advertises a county better than it's grasses, and we certainly grow them to perfection in Columbia County. Some have been sent in, but I want a large quantity, and I want them from every part of the county. It is not much trouble for any farmer to bring or send in a few specimens, and it will help greatly in making a creditable showing. Now is the time, and I sincerely hope, before another week goes by to have received a large number of good samples of alsike, red top, timothy, alfalfa, vetch, wild pea, orchard grass, and in fact of all the different varieties of grasses and forage plants grown in Columbia County. Send them or bring them direct to me, properly lablled. Act now, while you have it in your mind. Send to

The Miraculous Box.

(Washington Star)

Luther Burbank, at a dinner in Santa Rosa, replied modestly with an anecdote to a eulogy of his new creation, the spineless cactus.

"Really, you know," said the plant wizard, "the spineless cactus is nothing like so marvelous as the straw-berry box that the fashionable fruiterer of the East uses. That is a creation indeed!

He smiled.

"A fashionable fruiterer," he said' "told his new boy one June morning to go to the back of his shop and fill a box with two-dollar strawberries for Mrs. Van Golde.

"The boy a moment later called from the rear:

"'Hey, there ain't enough berries here to fill this box.'

"The fruiterer hurled back himself. He looked at the box, then he sneered at the boy.

"'Why, you young greenhorn!' he said, 'you've got it upside down!'"

The Burning Question.

(Success Magazine)

A Baltimore teacher was trying to explain the meaning of the word "recuperate."

"Charley," she said, "when night comes your father returns home tired and worn out, doesn't he?"

"Yes, ma'am" assented Charley.

"Then," continued the teacher, "it being night, and he being tired, what does he do?"

"That's what ma wants to know," said Charley.

VERNONIA

The celebration here on Saturday promises to be of interest. Besides a parade and programme in the morning there will be a ball game between the single and married men in the afternoon.

Rev. H. E. Hornschuch, the presiding elder, will fill the Vernonia pulpit morning and evening next Sunday. He will also preach at Pleasant Hill school house, up the river, in the afternoon.

Claud Chamberlin and family are all packed up ready to move out. They will go to Hammond, Ore., for the summer, where Claude will find work. We shall be sorry to have them leave the valley.

Wm Mellinger, Robt Lindsay, Guy Mills and Ray Mills are all home for the 4th.

L. E. Barker who with his wife and daughter Eloise, spent last summer with Dr. and Mrs. Hatfield, come again last week, having concluded to make Oregon his permanent home. Mrs. Barker and Eloise will come later. They will probably reside in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Early went out Thursday of this week to visit their daughter, Mrs. Albert Baker, of Dundee, and a sister of Mrs. Earley, residing up the Willamette Valley, who she has not seen for 16 years.

Children's Day was observed at the Pleasent Hill school house last Sunday at two p. m. There was a good programme and a large attendance Many of our town people attended.

MARRIED—At the residence of the brides parents, near Braunsport, Miss Lillie M. McDonald and F. C. McGraw Justice of the Perce Judson Weed officiating. A fine dinner was served to friends and neighbors. We wish the young people many years of happiness and prosperity.

Oscar Weed and wife—recently married at Philomath—after spending their honeymoon with the home folks, will reside at Clatskanie. Mr. Weed and Miss Gertrude are again to teach school the coming year.

Henry Aldrich, Peter Bender, Johnny Libel and Mr. Spencer of Mist, were here Wednesday of last week to present the matter of a co operative creamery at Mist to our dairymen, but none of them come out, although they had been notified. Guess they were not much interested. Satisfied to sell their cream to the largest creameries in Portland.
