Best ice cream at Bennett Bros.

E. R. Taylor, of Broadhead, Wisconsin, an old friend of the Ross family, with his wife and daughter, has been visiting with them and with Mr. J. U. Barker this week.

The county court had its first experience with the bounty law enacted by the recent legislature last Wednesday, when it indorsed the action of the county clerk in paying bounty on four wildcats, three being killed by James Ray and one by Noble Vandolah, the reward being $2 for each cat. The entire skin has to be presented to the clerk, who is required to cut off the fore paws for the inspection of the Court.

Raymond, the infant son of J. G. Bennett received quite a severe injury Wednesday afternoon. He placed his hand on the edge of an open soda water box, when the lid, with a long wire nail in, fell down, the nail perforating the baby's hand.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's parents, Fred Frantz and Mattie Nowels, Thursday afternoon, July 1st, at 2 p. m., Rev. Davies officiating. The ceremony was performed in the front room, under an arch made of ivy, Oregon grape, maiden hair ferns and beautiful flowers. The bride was dressed in blue taffeta silk and carried myrtle and white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss May Vincent, wore white cashmere and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by David Vincent. The presents were numerous and beautiful. After the ceremony ice cream and cakes were served. The newly married couple left for a trip to Oregon City.

W. E. Carlson, aged 25, Frank Wilson, aged 18, and C. H. Barry, aged 20, were brought here last week by Sheriff White, charged with the burglary of the store of the Milloy Mercantile Company at Scappoose on June 20th. They had been trying to sell the goods and the Portland police held them on a vagrancy charge. Barry has confessed and will plead guilty when court meets, provided there is no grand jury indictment; but if there is no grand jury the taxpayers will have the pleasure of entertaining him until the October term of circuit court. The preliminary examination of Wilson and Carlson was held Wednesday and the testimony showed they were caught with the goods in their possession. They were placed under bonds of $1000 each, in default of which they were returned to the county jail. Barry, whose home is Des Moines, Iowa, states that he ran away from home when only nine years of age and that he has been a hobo ever since, making his living by dishonest methods during the intervening years.

Mr. A. T. Laws has formed a connection in the real estate business with Chapin & Herlow, 332 Chamber of Commerce, one of the leading real estate firms of the city of Portland, thus securing great advantage in the way of getting in touch with the new comers who desire investments or homes in Columbia County. Mr. Laws' new office is over the Columbia County Bank.

MARRIED—A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of J. C. Fitzgerald, at Anity, Oregon, on June 30th, when his daughter, Ella Cecil, was united in marriage to Charles Tarbell Brown, Rev. E. Gittens, pastor of the family, officiating. The rooms were beautifully decorated after the manner of June weddings—with "roses, roses everywhere," lilies and white Canterbury bells completing the pink and white color scheme of the parlor where the ceremony took place. Miss Marian Fitzgerald, sister of the bride, acted as maid-of-honor, with Mr. Eber Brown, brother of the groom, as best man. The bride is well known in Columbia County, having been one of our most successful teachers for the past two years, while the groom has a host of friends in and about Yankton, where most of his life has been spent.

Mr. T. A. Cloninger, of Scappoose, visited here on Monday last.

The St. Helens Baseball Association started in this year without a cent. They have inclosed and made a good ball ground, built a grandstand and bleachers bought suits which cost $100, paid all running expenses and now have money in the bank. It speaks well for the city of St. Helens.

Have you seen the new delivery wagon of Jas Muckle & Son. They are prepared to deliver all goods on short notice. Try them.

M. S. Hazen, while touching off some of the fireworks at the celebration last Monday night, had his face very severely burned by the explosion of a bomb. The fuse had died down, and, thinking it had gone out, he started to relight it, when it exploded in his face, filling it with powder, but, fortunately, not injuring his eyes. His injuries will confine him to the house for some time.

At a dance following the celebration held last Monday at Mist nearly everyone who ate supper was soon after attacked by ptomaine poisoning, and at last accounts several were still sick, though no fatalities had occurred. Chicken, kept long after cooking, is supposed to have caused the trouble.

Shingle mill for sale, boiler and engine, complete to operate. For particulars inquire R. A. Dupont, Yankton.

L. R. Farris, while attending the celebration at St. Helens, received word that his saw mill at Rainier, had been totally destroyed by fire, and with it the mill of the Eureka Planing Mill Company. Mr. Farris' mill was new and modern and the insurance carried was very small in proportion to the loss. Some time ago Mr. Farris' store was destroyed by fire. Only the fact that Rainier has a splendid water system saved the entire business portion of the town from destruction.

When you give your painting contract to Williams you know that you will get the best job that can be done for he positively guarantees satisfaction.

Restaurant for sale at a bargain. Inquire of the Columbia County Abstract and Trust Company, St. Helens.

Another great improvement soon to be made in the appearance of our city is the construction of six hundred feet of concrete sidewalk on the west side of Columbia street between Cowlitz and St. Helens street, nearly all the property owners having agreed thereon. It will not be long before St. Helens will be known as the city of beautiful homes, handsome business blocks and good sidewalks. Then, too, in a very short time, we will have a splendid electric lighting system, and, in another year, as good a water system as any city in the State, with complete fire protection. Good streets we now have, and it costs very little to keep them in repair. There is no town in Western Oregon whose prospects are better than St. Helens.

How about furniture? If you are going to buy take a look in Wellington's warehouse before you decide to pay extra freight and hauling charges. He delivers the goods at your home.

Good grade Jersey, four years old, for sale cheap. Inquire at this office.

Shows, that are the kind you want. Whether it is a dress suit or for work my line is complete.

J. H. WELLINGTON.

The editor of the Mist attended a very pleasant celebration at Deer Island last Saturday. It was under the management of the United Artisans and was fairly well attended. There was a free-for-all dinner, a baseball game and other sports and in the evening a dance at the Grange hall. After the dinner hour we paid a visit to the farm of Mr. Edward, about four miles out of town and probably three hundred feet above the river level, and were surprised to find crops doing so well on the hill land. At a depth of four inches the soil was quite moist, and strawberries were still ripening on the vines. Mr. Edward expects to put in an acre of berries this fall, as there is a ready market in the neighborhood for all he could raise.
