Checks for the Communion Table.

The author of "The Sabbath in Puritan New England" mentions a custom which prevailed in several New England churches to walk up and down the aisles of the church at the close of each service and deliver to every person who in their judgment was fitted to commune a metal check, which entitled him at the next celebration of the Lord's supper to join in the sacred ordinance. On the communion Sabbath it was the deacons' duty to see that every one who presented himself at the Lord's table had this check and to collect it from the communicant before passing to him the bread and wine.

All to Do Over Again.

It is an open question if the old fisherman in the following story ever got the right answer to the problem that was puzzling his head. A writer in Everybody's Magazine, at least, leaves no in doubt on that score. The riddle was this: "If a herring and a half costs a penny and a half, how many herrings can you buy for a shilling?" The old fisherman had worked on it for some time.

"What did you say the mackerel and a half cost?" he asked at last.

"I didn't say mackerel; I said herring," explained the skipper.

"Oh, that's different," said the other. "I've been figuring on mackerel."

The Old Hoss Room.

Alvin Adams when the express business was in its infancy had an office and two horses in New York city. One of these horses was a fine, fast animal, and the other an old, broken-down nag. Packages that were to be delivered immediately he sent out behind the fast horse. Of goods that didn't have to be rushed he would say, "Leave them for the old hoss."

In every express office to this day there is an "old hoss" room, where undelivered and unclaimed packages are kept.—Argonaut.

His Definition.

At a London board school the teacher had explained to the children the meaning of the word "ability." "Now, children," she went on, "what word would express the opposite to ability?"

A sharp faced little boy at the end of the end form bobbed up his head and exclaimed, "Please, teacher, nobility!"—Work and Play.

PILES

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man."—George Kryder, Napoleon, O.

SIX DEAD IN FOREST FIRES

Stubborn Rancher Sarts Slashing in Spite of Warnings

Schoolteacher and Niece in Lonely Homestead Cabin Fall Victims—All Efforts Fail to Save.

Spokane, Wash.—Six lives have been lost in fires which are raging in the district around Spokane. For hundreds of miles in every direction is a cauldron of flame, a seething furnace which is taking its toll of life and property. It is the Coueur d'Alene, all over the Idaho Panhandle, in the Colville district, north around Nelson and Kaslo, far westward, extending clear to the coast, the fire fiend is king.

No real estimate can be placed upon property loss from the fires. Great tracts of timber have been burned. In the Coueur d'Alene some of the finest standing timber of the entire district has been wiped out. For miles in every direction the mountains appear as huge bonfires. North, east, west and south of this city the same condition exists and every day the loss of property is growing greater and the death list is being added to.

A forest fire driven by a sweeping gale through the dry pine forest on Mill Creek, 18 miles northeast of Colville, surrounded the homestead cabin of Miss Pearl Brewen, aged 22, a teacher in school district No. 156. Before assistance could reach her she and her little niece, 1 year old, daughter of Hon. J. S. Wyman, of Plains, Mont., were burned to death. Dozens of determined men vainly sought to reach the cabin, but were driven back.

W. W. Clark, residing on the south fork of Mill Creek, arrived at Colville and reported to Prosecuting Attorney H. G. Kirkpatrick the harrowing details of the schoolteacher's death. She was in her lonely homestead cabin, her niece spending the day with her. The gruesome tragedy was the result of a forest fire set by W. A. Trowbridge, a near neighbor, clearing a slashing.

Trowbridge has been arrested, with two other men, and he will be taken to jail. The settlers are very angry, and Sheriff Graham is prepared for emergencies. Millions of feet of timber have been burned in the last few days.

Warden Hanson has arrived at Colville with Trowbridge in custody, and Prosecuting Attorney Kirkpatrick, who with Coroner A. B. Cook and Under-laker W. S. Prindle, was just leaving the court house for the scene of the death of Miss Brewen, ordered the prisoner to the custody of Sheriff W. H. Graham.

According to Mr. Clark, Trowbridge had been warned personally not to set fire, that it was contrary to law. Hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of timber is being destroyed and there is but little hope of checking the flames until rain falls.

Men Die as Heroes.

Nelson, B. C.—Leaving safety to look after others, Foreman Charles Norman, of the Lucky Jim mine at Kaslo, lost his life in a bush fire which, fanned by a high wind, swept over the mine. Four other men were suffocated and about 30 escaped.

A party of prominent mining men, including Pinecane, Miller and Colonel Davidson, from Spokane and Webster; Loper and Proctor, of Nelson, on coming out of tunnel No. 5, noticed fire rapidly approaching. They went to Whitewater and assisted to get the women and children away. Norman went to the mine camp to warn the men in the cabins. Otto Swanson led the men to the back of tunnel No. 4. Not being room there for all, several went to another part of the tunnel, where smoke was swept through the ventilating chambers, suffocating Col. Peterson and W. A. Chesney. Dave Peterson was found suffocated at another point. Meanwhile Norman went to look for Ted Lucas, who is still missing. He was cut off by the flames and his body was found at the entrance to the tunnel.

Fire Might Have Been Checked.

Seattle, Wash.—Five hundred thousand feet of logs had been cut and were ready for delivery have been destroyed by a forest fire now raging near Tolt, in this county. The fire is the worst that has broken out this side of the Cascade mountains this season. It is eating its way into valuable green timber owned by the O'Neil Timber company, limited. The fire might have been checked in its early stages before it destroyed the large quantity of logs had the contractors taken the pains to put in a few fire fighters.

Forests Blaze Near Hoquiam.

Hoquiam, Wash.—A force of 1,000 loggers is engaged in patrolling the logging districts north of Hoquiam to prevent forest fires from breaking out anew. No damage has been done yet, with the exception of $5,000 worth of timber destroyed Saturday. Hot prevailing weather has a tendency to dry out mosses and brush, making timber easy prey to the flames. The territory burned over is estimated at 4,000 acres. Forest fires are raging in Little North river country, located 16 miles southeast of here.

Bad Storm Sweeps Nevada.

Reno, Nev.—The worst storm Nevada has experienced in years at this time of the year started late Tuesday afternoon breaking the longest dry period the state has ever known. The precipitation has been nearly two inches, which exceeds the total for the five preceding months combined. Streetcar traffic was demoralized by a flash of lightning which burned out the transformers. The cars were out of commission all night.

Big Mill Threatened by Fires.

Tacoma, Wash.—Forest fires on the McKenna branch of the Tacoma Eastern railroad threaten the Bryan saw-mill, according to reports received here. A lively fire is raging and it is feared the force of men fighting the flames is inadequate to save the mill.

Cleaning the Henhouse.

If you wish to rid your henhouses of lice and mites now is the time to do it.

Clean them perfectly, whitewash the sides and roosts, remove all litter from the nests and whitewash them outside and in. Take out all droppings and litter on the floor and sprinkle ashes over the floor every few days. Fumigate the house once or twice a week with sulphur or tobacco smoke. Make a war on the insects for the next two months, and you will not be troubled much with them during summer.

Domestic Fiction.

Mrs. Brown—I used to be so fond of fiction before I was married. Mrs. Smith—And don't you read now?

Mrs. Brown—No; after the tales my husband tells me about why he is late getting home merely printed fiction seems so tame and unimaginative.

The Burning Question.

Venus was rising from the sea.

"Great Jupiter!" cried the men, as they crowded the beach. "How did you lose your arms?"

But the women never noticed the arms.

Threatened Them.

Mike and Pat were hired to clean a elstern. Mike took a firm hold of the rope and started to let Pat down. When about half way down Pat yelled up:

"Ho! Mike, stop letting me down."

"For why?" said Mike.

"Don't ask any questions," said Pat, "if'er you don't stop letting me down, I'll cut the rope."—Harper's Monthly.

FASHION HINTS

Strawberries grown in City.

To show that strawberries can be grown in the heart of the city, Willis A. Hendricks of East Twenty-first and Albert streets brought to the office of the Oregonian a number of boxes of Oregonian and Oregon Improved berries containing an average of twenty berries to the box. The berries were grown on an ordinary city lot without irrigation. Mr. Hendricks had 1,000 plants on his lot and at the first picking he picked a total of 86 boxes of the monster berries. A number of the berries were over five inches in circumference and one measured 7 1/2 inches in circumference.—Portland Oregonian.

His Question-Answer.

"Are marriages made in heaven?"

The lecturer paused, as if for an answer to his interrogation; whereupon a man with a hunted look glanced furtively over his shoulder, swallowed hard, moistened his lips and said, huskily:

"Do strawberries grow at the north pole?"

Mixed Feed for Horses.

In large city stables feeding the horses the hay and grain as mixed feed is the general practice and gives the best results. Keepers find that horses can be worked hard and kept in good condition on cut hay and cornmeal. The amount of hay fed varies from 8 to 14 pounds a day in different stables, and of grain from 7 to 20 pounds a day.

Good Rotation.

A good rotation is corn, grain, clover. Hay land should be topdressed with stable manure, and best results were obtained by applying this little and often. Where land remains in grass a long time a light sowing of clover from time to time is beneficial, reseeded in summer after the hay crop has been removed.

The Great Problem.

"Please advise me."

RESTRAINING HAND.

Its Action Followed by a Voice That Warned.

"Patrick H. McCarren once told me of a funny incident that happened in Rome," said a Brooklyn lawyer. "McCarren said that on his first visit to Rome, after he had seen the Coliseum and the Forum, he visited the Ara Coeli Church, on the left of the Capitoline Hill. He climbed the grand stairway leading to the church, the finest open air stairway in the world. He pushed back the heavy leather curtain, and, entering, he found a service in progress. So he put his hat on the marble floor at his side and took a seat.

"After ten minutes or so he decided he would go and reached down for his hat. But a restraining hand was laid on his, and he desisted. He knew, of course, that some churches don't like people to leave in the midst of a service.

"Ten or fifteen minutes more passed. The service still continued. Senator McCarren got impatient and again reached for his hat. But again the unseen hand restrained him from the rear.

"A little later, however, the senator quite lost patience. This was, he told himself an important service, of course. Nevertheless, he did not propose to miss his luncheon, and it would harm no one if he slipped out quietly.

"So a third time he reached for his hat, and the invisible hand a third time detained him. He persevered, however. The silent hand pushed against his hat, and he was conquering in the struggle a voice said in good American: "Cheese it, boss; that's my hat you're taking."

Ample Proof.

Lottie—Is your young minister, so very, very fascinating?

Hattie—Fascinating! Why, lots of girls in our church have married men they hated, just to get one kiss from 'e rector after the ceremony.—Puck

Postponed.

Dolly—Why aren't you at the cooking school?

Polly—Teacher's laid up with dyspepsia.—Cleveland Leader.

Good Tip.

"I guess I'll have to dispose of my dog."

"Why?"

"The price of dog biscuits has gone up out of sight."

"Can't you feed him animal crackers?"—Houston Post.

Its Nature.

"There is one good thing, or ought to be, about the society model deity business."

"What's that?"

"It gets the cream of the trade."—Baltimore American

Stops Hair Falling

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly stop falling of the hair. Indeed, we believe it will always do this unless there is some disturbance of the general health. Then, a constitutional medicine may be necessary. Consult your physician about this.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it. Do as he says.

The reason why Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair is because it first destroys the germs which cause this trouble. After this is done, nature soon brings about full recovery, restoring the hair and scalp to a perfectly healthy condition.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
