Bids on City Hall too High. Steps Taken to Secure Sewer System

At the meeting of the City Council last Monday night the dips for the construction of the proposed City Hall The funeral services were held at the were opened, but there was such a vast difference between .he figures of the carpenters and the estimate of the architect that they were rejected. The plans were to be drawn for a building to cost less than $5000, but the lowest bid received was $9822. The plans will be drawn over again and a considerable amount of work that will materially cut down the cost left out. The matter of sewers took up the larger part of the evening's session. A proposition to newer the entire town has for some time been under consideration, but it was definitely turned down Monday. The sewers will be built on the assessment plan, and property owners will be given a term of years to pay their assessments. Fourteen members of Mizpah Chapter C. T. Prescott was instructed to take levels and establish grades on Willamette and the other streets on which it is proposed to lay a sewer at once. Also to establish the grade on Winter Street, as as the new water system's main will come into town on that street, CARD OF THANKS
