Her Mistake.

The young woman was hastening to the subway station en route to the railway train. Looking about for a boy to carry her heavy suit case, she espied a stalwart youth and asked him if he would take it for her to the station. He hesitated a moment, as he had been headed in the opposite direction, and then complied. At the ticket window there was an unusual crowd. The boy pushed forward, bought a ticket for the young woman, put it in the box and handed her the suit case. As she proffered him the dime which seemed adequate for his services he smiled at her peculiarly, shook his head, lifted his hat gracefully and was gone before the young woman had time to protest or really to understand what had occurred. Then the appalling thought came to her with conviction that he was undoubtedly a college boy putting in vacation time at some kind of employment which necessitated his wearing quite ordinary working clothes.

"And how dreadful," she thought, squirming with mortification, "he actually paid my fare, too!"

SYMBOLISM DID NOT APPEAL

Belinda Rejects Proposal of Charlie to Be Joined Together Like Hands of Clock.

"Charlie," sorrowfully sighed the young lady in the parlor of the concrete house, on Washington avenue. "It is nearly 12 o'clock."

"Yes, Belinda," was the breathing response of her poetical companion, who was sitting on the sofa beside her. "The minute hand is drawing closer and closer to the hour hand, and when the time of midnight is chimed the two hands will be even as one. Oh, darling Belinda," he continued, as he literally simulated the action of the minute hand, "may not the coming together of those two hands be symbolical of us?"

She broke away and stood firmly on her feet. "No, Charles Henry Smith," she retorted, angrily, "those two hands will remain as one but a single second, and then the minute hand will divorce itself and go on its way alone. No, Mr. Smith, a minute hand that doesn't stick isn't the kind of symbolism I want!"

OUR COAL SUPPLY.

Simplifying the Labor of Procuring It Increased the Output.

It was feared at one time that the rate of coal consumption would soon outgrow the rate of production and there was talk of curtailing the use of coal in many industries, says a writer in Lippincott's. But the inventor proceeded to make coal mining machinery which lessened the labor of extracting the raw product from the earth and increased the output tenfold. England today bases her hope of extending the period of her profitable coal mining upon the invention of machinery that will compensate for the added cost of deeper mining. In America coal mining machinery has doubled and tripled the output. A coal digger cuts and extracts the coal from its bed as fast as three or four skilled miners could formerly do; it falls automatically upon cars, which swing upward like elevators to the light of day, and deposit their contents into chutes.

Down the sooty mass tumbles to the breakers, where it is pounded and broken into sizes suitable for commerce. Thence it slides on to the washery, and comes out at the other end to be dumped on cars. The cars quickly cross the country to some river or bay, where canal boats are waiting. The transference from the cars to the boats, and from the boats to the wholesale and retail dealers' coal yards is performed automatically. Even when the coal comes into our homes it is shot down chutes into the cellar, and not carried there in buckets and baskets as of old.

And yet, for all this simplifying of labor, this invention of machines to reduce the dust and ashes, nobody likes coal, and we all pray for the time to come when its use may be abolished. It is not a popular article of commerce; it is a clumsy and dirty fuel, and in this age of invention and discovery it seems woefully out of date. It is not new machinery to increase the output that we are longing for, but the discovery of some new method of obtaining heat and power.

Japanese is Hardest to Learn.

The Japanese language is claimed to be the hardest of all to learn. Even the Japanese and it hard, and several American army officers have found it impossible to master it. It takes the Japanese child seven years to learn the essential parts of the alphabet, and one must become familiar with 214 signs to learn this simple part of the language alone. The 214 signs serve as the English initial letters in our alphabet. To be able to read any of the higher class of Japanese newspapers one must be the master of from 2,500 to 3,000 ideographs.—Albany Journal.

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. TOLSTOI AND THE PRINCESS Invalid Noblewoman Who Was Convinced About the Great Political Reformer's Religious Belief.

When I was in St. Petersburg I had an introduction to a certain princess, who was said to be interested in prisons and prisoners, and though I knew that she had absolutely no concern with any political reforms, I hoped she might help me to an interview with Mme. Broshkowsky. The princess was an invalid, and I was allowed to go directly to her room, where she lay on a lounge, with a little stand beside her on which lay religious books. She received me with great cordiality, winning my heart with her first words. She spoke excellent English and we needed no interpreter.

"I am an old, old woman," she said cheerfully, "but I find my old age the happiest part of my life."

"That is almost what Count Tolstoy said to me," I replied. "Oh," she cried, "do you know my old friend, Tolstoy? We were young together, and how I love him! But, alas, he trusts too much to his own merits. I pray for him every day. I pray that he may learn to trust to the merits of Jesus. He is good and noble and kind, but he must give up his own idea of righteousness and accept the gospel. I have been so anxious about him that I wrote out a prayer that I wanted to have him say for I told him I offered it daily. So I sent it to him. In reply he sent me a prayer which he says he prays daily."—Isabel C. Harrows in the Christian Register.

lobes Trotting to Avoid Sultors.

Helena Evelyn Graydon, who obtained a divorce from Tom Graydon, light haired young man who made a powerful fullback on the Har football team several years ago, came to Europe to escape a portly sultor, who says he is a Russian nobleman. Mrs. Graydon, who is daughter of J. Parker Whitney, is spending the greater part of time on her father's ranch in Placer county, California. Employed on the ranch was an expert horticulturist. He was presented to Mrs. Graydon and almost instantly fell in love with her. He sought to follow up socially an acquaintance that came about simply through his employment. He wrote letters and telephoned constantly to her. Finally Mrs. Graydon left the ranch and went to San Francisco. The "nobleman" followed and continued his letter writing and telephoning. His pursuit became so arduous that Mrs. Graydon left San Francisco and sailed for Europe.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

SWARM TO SEE ROOSEVELT.

Dedication of John Brown Battlefield Will Draw Thousands.

Topeka, Kan.—Visits to Kansas by Presidents Harrison, Roosevelt and Taft have brought together great crowds, but the coming of Colonel Roosevelt on August 31 to dedicate the John Brown battlefield at Ossawatimie will cause to assemble there the greatest number of Kansas people ever congregated within the borders of the state.

Fully 50,000 will attend this celebration, which is to be held on the battlefield where John Brown and his men fought for free Kansas. The tract of land, comprising 22 acres, has been purchased by the Women's Relief corps and decided to the state for a memorial park.

Ossawatimie, the early home of John Brown, is about 50 miles south and west of Kansas City, and about 15 miles from the Missouri state line. In the early history of the state the town was a mere trading post, but with the building of the Missouri Pacific railroad through it, an era of prosperity came and with this the location of shops for the railroad company. Its population today is about 2,500.

What the little town will do with the 50,000 people who will assemble there to greet Colonel Roosevelt on the morning of August 31 is a question not easily answered.

Exposition Tax Opposed.

Mansfield, La.—The farmers' union of Louisiana appears to be opposed to the special Panama exposition tax as provided for in recent acts of the legislature. The Desoto parish division here, attended by leaders of the movement from all over the state, went on record by almost an unanimous vote in opposition to the proposed tax. When the resolution was offered pledging members of the union to vote against the tax, a prolonged discussion ensued, after which the vote was taken.

Meteor Falls; Jars City.

Council Bluffs, Ia.—Accompanied by a noise as loud as thunder, a large meteor fell in the neighborhood of Council Bluffs shaking the city and causing intense excitement. Searching parties have attempted for some hours to locate the place where the meteor fell, but at a late hour had been able to do so. It is supposed to have fallen in the hills immediately back of the city. Hundreds of people heard the explosion and felt the shock, but because the sun was shining at the time, very few saw it.

Trainmen Ask 8-Hour Day.

St. Louis—The eight-hour day for freight conductors and trainmen and the mileage basis for passenger crews are the most important proposals that will be submitted to the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen in the next ten days. The crews will seek the equivalent of the 20 per cent increase in wages. The concessions that will be requested will be in the form of improved rules and conditions of work.

Paris Has Lynching.

Paris—Paris witnessed a demonstration of lynch law in the heart of the capital Sunday, August 7. A policeman was about to arrest an apache in the Boulevard Sebastopol when the man fired at him with a revolver. The bullet wounded the policeman and killed a man passing on the street. A crowd speedily gathered, arrested the apache and hanged him to a lamp post.

Woman Hit by Ball Sues.

Kansas City—Alleging that a baseball batted foul struck her on the cheek and thus caused a permanent disfigurement, Miss Hazel Wilson has sued the owners of the local American Association baseball team for $20,000 damages. Miss Wilson says that if the ball in which she was sitting had been properly screened the accident would not have happened.

MAYOR GAYNOR IS ASSASSINATED

Mortally Wounded While on Board Steamer.

Was About to Sail for Europe for Rest and Travel—Assassin Arrested on Ship.

New York, Aug. 9.—Mayor William J. Gaynor, of New York, was shot and probably fatally wounded on board the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Gross as he was sailing for Europe this morning. His assailant, who, at the time was not identified, was arrested.

Later the man who shot the mayor gave his name as Jules James Gallagher of 440 Third avenue, New York City.

The mayor was standing on the upper deck of the liner, well forward, talking with Commissioner Thompson, Corporation Counsel Watson and his secretary Mr. Adamson, when the shot was fired.

William J. Gaynor was born in Whitestown, Oneida county, New York, in 1851, and received his education in Whitestown and Boston. At the age of 22 he went to Brooklyn, where he engaged in newspaper work and took up the study of law, working on the Brooklyn and New York papers while studying. He was admitted to the bar in 1875 and began practice. He was a noted writer on legal subjects and acquired a national reputation for his work in breaking up rings within the Democratic party and in securing the conviction of John V. Kane for election frauds. He was elected Judge of the Supreme court and served from 1893 to 1899, when he was elected mayor of New York City. He twice declined the Democratic nomination for governor, also judge of the Court of Appeals, and also the nomination for mayor of Brooklyn in 1896. He was one of the first to speak of favoritism in freight rates.
