Among those who purchased lots in Railroad Addition this week are Barnes & Mortensen, the well known Vancouver, Wash. merchants, who, after looking over the tract, decided that a couple of lots in Railroad Addition was as good an investment as could be found either in Vancouver or Portland, and accordingly selected two choice lots near the proposed depot site.

Sixteen lots in one tract in St. Helens for sale dirt cheap for a few days. Only $600 for the bunch. This is like finding money. Inquire of George H. Shinn. 2-11

TO THE PUBLIC

We knew St. Helens was a live town full of live people, but we really didn't think it was quite so lively. Who would have thought that 60 lots in Railroad Addition would be sold the first week the lots were on the market? Well, that's what happened. There are 100 choice lots left, and if you want to invest in some good real estate (the safest investment one can make) you had better get out and pick out your lot. You can't lose on any lot in RAILROAD ADDITION, and you stand a mighty good chance to double your money in the course of a couple of years. Don't pass this chance up, but visit RAILROAD ADDITION right away. Our sales agent, Mr. A. T. Laws, will be glad to take you out any time. The terms are very easy.
