Art Criticism.

"I rather like the motif of that picture," said Mrs. Oldcastle, after she had carefully inspected the new work of art. "Yes, so do I," replied her hostess, as they were passing from the gallery, "only both me and Josiah thought the artist meant it for a cow."—Chicago Record-Herald.

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me.

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can say to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will."—Mrs. JANETZKI, 2963 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

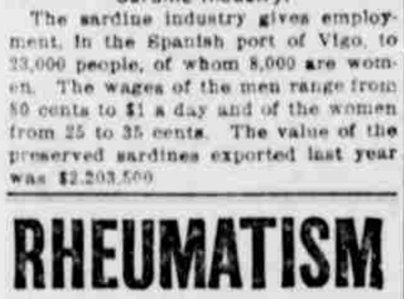
This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Sardine Industry.

The sardine industry gives employment, in the Spanish port of Vigo, to 23,000 people, of whom 8,000 are women. The wages of the men range from 80 cents to $1 a day and of the women from 25 to 35 cents. The value of the preserved sardines exported last year was $2,203,500.

RHEUMATISM



Munyon's Rheumatism Remedy relieves pains in the legs, arms, back, stiff or swollen joints. Contains no morphine, opium, cocaine or drugs to deaden the pain. It neutralizes the acid and drives out all rheumatic poisons from the system. Write Prof. Munyon, 53d and Jefferson Sts., Phila., Pa., for medical advice, absolutely free.

Good Reasoning.

"I wish Cousin Jim and Miss Jones would get married," pondered eight-year-old Nadine. "'Cause, why, mamma?" "Oh, I don't like either of them, an' if they'd get married to each other an' go off on a long, long wedding journey, I wouldn't have to see any more of them, an' they'd ought to be happy. So it would be killing two birds with one stone!"

DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to 'Cascarets' for their wonderful composition. I have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail, and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year." James McGune.

BOTH GOOD CAT IMITATORS

Lawyers Sleeping in Court Room Meow Like Feline, and Finally Come Together in Mix-Up.

"A bunch of lawyers were sleeping in a stuffy court room in a country town because of the overcrowded condition of the single hotel during a session of court," said a lawyer, "when one of them, a practical joker, possessing a remarkable faculty of imitating a cat, concluded to have some fun out of it. After all of them had quieted down to sleep he started a plaintive moan like a cat. Another fellow on the opposite side of the room had a similar faculty of imitation, and was awakened by the noise of the supposed cat, and remarked to his next fellow:

"'Some darned cat has got into the room. Just wait. I'll imitate a tabby and we'll catch the Tom.'

"So the two began meowing at each other. The first supposed it was a real cat, and the room being extremely dark, they kept approaching each other, each with a boot in hand to demolish the supposed cat. They got together finally, and then there was an act not down on the program. Each had aimed his boot well, and when a light was finally struck the two men were mixing it up badly in the center of the room, and it took the rest of the lawyers and the town doctor to get them in presentable shape for court the following day."

WALKED BACK.

Friend—How long were you out on the road?"

Ham—Six months. One going out and five getting back."

Adorning the Menu Card.

"How is it," demanded the patient man, in the Soho garbage den, at last, "how is it that quail is always off the menu?"

The hireling readjusted his greasy napkin and yawned wearily.

"That," said he, "is just a fancy touch. We never had a quail."—Sporting Times.

Highly Improper.

"What is the proper thing for a man to do when his wife asks him for money and he hasn't any?" inquired Newed.

"Oh, there isn't any proper thing to do under those circumstances," replied Oldwed. "Anything he does will be wrong."

A Question.

"We must have no sinecures," said the reformer.

"Well," replied Senator Sorghum, thoughtfully, "sometimes I'm in doubt as to which make the most trouble, the fellows with sinecures or those who work overtime getting in the way."

Attractive Attention.

"Johnson says he's getting along splendidly in his new position."

"Is that so?"

"Yes, he's been there three months now and already one member of the board of directors knows that he's working there."

Crowding the Market.

"What are these old masters held at?"

"Sixteen thousand each."

"I'll give you two dollars apiece for two of them.

"Make it five dollars for three, and they're yours."

One Point of View.

Mrs. Exe—You don't hear my husband going around complaining about my treatment of him, as yours does.

Mrs. Wye—No; but that doesn't mean that your husband is satisfied—merely that he is subdued.

A Mistake.

"Don't you think that candidate indulges a great deal too much in verbosity?"

"Oh, no, indeed; he's strictly temperance."

LITTLE THINGS IN NATURE

Little Girl Who Did Not Know Number of Seed Compartments in Apple, Asks a Puzzler.

"How many seed compartments are here in an apple?" he asked. No one answered.

"And yet," continued the school inspector, "all of you eat many an apple in the course of a year, and see the fruit every day probably. You must learn to notice the little things in nature."

The talk of the inspector impressed the children, and at playtime the teacher overheard them discussing. A little girl, getting her companions round her, gravely said:

"Now, children, suppose I am Mr. Taylor, you've got to know more about common things. If you don't you will grow up to be fools. Now, tell me inside," she continued, looking sternly at a playmate, "how may feathers are there on a hen?"

PRESTO! CHANGE!

Mrs. Tellit—Yes, she is a decided blonde.

Mrs. Knockit—Indeed! When did she decide?

The Rich Uncle.

Young Doctor—Hello, old chap! Don't believe I have met you since we were boys at school. You're looking prosperous.

Young Lawyer—Yes; a rich uncle died two years ago and I came into possession of nearly $100,000.

Young Doctor—Why, I wasn't aware you had a rich uncle.

Young Lawyer—Oh, he wasn't my uncle. He was the uncle of one of my clients.

Hard to Satisfy.

"I always kiss him when I am in need the money."

"And do you always get it?"

"Always."

"Then why that faraway, doubtful look in your eyes?"

"I am just trying to decide whether he lets me have the money because he likes to have me kiss him, or because he wants me to stop."

Merely Suggested.

"I see where stripes and the lock step are to be abolished in the Minnesota state penitentiary because they depress convicts."

"Very thoughtful on the part of the reformers. Perhaps they will next abolish steel cages and barred windows because they give sensitive sojourners that pent-up feeling."

Striking Personality.

"Do you observe his calm, judicial eye?"

"Yes."

"His breadth of shoulder? His firm-set mouth? His powerful jaw?"

"I do."

"Well, there stands a man who wrote '1911' the first time he tried it and has been writing the year correctly ever since."

Punishment Fit the Crime.

"I think that when an able-bodied man comes around to a kitchen door and has the nerve to ask for something to eat he should be punished in some manner."

"So do I; why don't you make an example of the next one?"

"How can I?"

"Give him some of your cooking."

Still Running.

"What did that cowardly gossip, Gabble, say when you made your announcement that you intended to horsewhip him for his remarks about your family?"

"I didn't catch what you said."

"How was that?"

"Oh, it was some kind of a running comment."

One Way.

A Scotch student, supposed to be deficient in judgment, was asked by a professor, in the course of his examination, how he would discover a fool.

"By the questions he would ask," was the prompt and highly suggestive reply.—Tit-Bits.

Unappreciated Favor.

"Did you kiss papa before you came out for the walk, dearie?"

"No, mamma. But I asked Julie to do it for me."

The walk is called off.—Journal Amusant.

All Off.

"Can I see Miss Chick?" asked A. Rooster of Old Chanticleer?"

"No," was the reply; "she is getting dressed for dinner."

More Immediate.

"Here's an affecting poem entitled 'Lost Youth.'"

"Don't talk to me. I've just lost a dollar."

Future of Cheesemaking.

Cheesemakers of the next century, maybe sooner, will have a seed germ laboratory attached to their factory, in which pure cultures of the cheese bacteria, germs responsible for the flavor of each kind of cheese, will be grown and nursed, and instead of fromage de Brie, Stilton or Gorgonzola, coming from different parts of the world, they will all be turned out from one factory, and no telling how cheap.

To Polish Furniture.

For furniture there is nothing to equal olive oil or raw linseed oil, rubbed into the wood, according to the grain. The woodwork may require restaining as well. Ordinary old oak is always improved by rubbing it with warm beer. It should be remembered that linseed oil has the effect of darkening mahogany.

The Preacher's Trade.

If the minister knows nothing about politics let him keep clear. But if he knows, and knows what he knows, and how to say it, let him do that thing. His utterances then will trouble some brother of course. But what of it? To trouble human conscience is the preacher's trade.—The Continent.

"Black Lightning."

In photographs of lightning, streaks of "black lightning" are often seen branching out from the main white flash, and people have long wondered what these were. It is now found, says the Scientific American, that they are due to the over-exposure of the photographic plate and the "reversal" of the negative into a positive.

Has Been at Work Long.

In Sherbrooke, Canada, a power company began work on a dam, and in the bottom of the river discovered a perfect well, round and smooth bored. The engineers followed it down and found the well was 30 feet deep and still boring. A round stone, whirled by the rush of the river, had been boring—for how many million years? It was still whirling, turbinelike, and still boring.—New York Press.

World's Jewish Population.

The numbers of Jews in the world is 11,625,658. Of these 1,903,926 are in America. The only country in the world having a larger Jewish population is Russia, with 5,082,242. In the list of cities showing the percentage of Jews to the population Jerusalem comes first with 55 per cent., and then Lodz, 49.59; Odessa, 33.75, and Warsaw, 33.36. The Jewish population of London is 2.28 per cent.

But the Trunkmakers Prosper.

"Here!" shouted the railway official, "what do you mean by throwing those trunks around like that?" The porter gasped in astonishment, and several travelers pinched themselves to make sure that it was real. Then the official spoke again. "Don't you see that you're making big dents in the concrete platform?"—Short Stories.

The Difference.

Minister—"Now, Tommy, suppose you did something naughty and were asked if you did it, what would you say?"—Tommy—"I dunno." "You don't know? Why, why? What would happen if you told a lie?" "The devil'd get me." "That's right. And what if you told the truth?" "I'd get th' devil."—Cleveland Leader.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medical, forest plants. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

His Established Record.

A detachment of United States signal corps stationed at Fort Meyer, Va., has established a record for agility which will be difficult to beat. It has several times recently unpacked its wireless outfit, erected the antenna, which is 40 feet high, and put everything in readiness for service in the short space of 68 seconds. This plant is capable of exchanging messages at a distance of 25 miles.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Child Safe in Sunday School.

An unusual experience was that of the three-year-old daughter of Sergeant Davies of the Shrewsbury (Eng.) police, who disappeared the other Sunday and was vainly sought for throughout the night. It was not until noon the next day that the child was found peacefully sleeping in Holy Trinity school. She had been inadvertently locked in the building after attending Sunday school.

Beautiful Labrador Coast.

Doctor Grenfell says that the Labrador coast, which he knows so well, is every whit as beautiful as that of Norway, and he is working on a chart which will be accurate enough to guide pleasure craft through the bays and channels of that shore. There is really nothing to go to Europe for but the ruins.—Youth's Companion.

One Point Lacking.

The story is told in Barry O'Brien's book on John Bright how, on one occasion, Sydney Smith, while looking critically at the unfinished portrait of a celebrated Nonconformist divine, said to the artist: "Do you not think you could throw into the face a stronger expression of hostility to the established church?"

His Salary.

"Is your young man gittin' a sal'ry, 'Melia?" "Sure he is. An' what's mo', de boss tol William he's gwine to double it." "Dat's fine! How much is he gittin' now?" "I dunno what he's gettin' now, but I speck it's somethin' like half what he's gwineter git."
