

WEDDING BELLS AT QUINCY.

On Sunday last at the residence of John E. Lumijarvi of Quincy, William Peter Erickson and Hilta Emella Norkali were united in wedlock. Rev. Isaac Nelson of the Apostolic Lutheran church performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Erickson are both well known and highly esteemed young people and have the very best wishes of the community in which they reside, for their prosperity and happiness.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

We celebrated April 1st with cotton pancakes. Ask Mrs. White.

Mrs. Greenhagen, our popular cook-house lady, is going out of business. We are sorry to say. Wonder who will be the next?

Mr. and Mrs. Bangs and Miss Hazel and Master Bernard Nutting went fishing Sunday. They brought back about a pound of catfish.

The great prize waltz ball at Deer Island came off Saturday night and was a decided success. Mr. George Hazen and Miss Lillian Breiko won the prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart have moved down from the Pen. Lumber camp. Mr. Stewart is going to run the Heistler engine here now.

George Sauerwein is ill with scarlet fever at St. Vincent hospital, Portland.

The school at Columbia City will give an entertainment the last day of school.

Ben Butts took a crowd out fishing last Sunday in his new launch. Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. Price and Misses Isabel and Nellie McCune were of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Neil, from the Peninsula camp, were in St. Helens, Sunday.

Miss Laura Olson of Houlton, has arrived home from the hospital, where she has been for some time. Her many friends here hope to see her strong and well again soon. M. E. L.

BASEBALL BITS.

Did you see the new uniforms? Spud's was a trifle wrinkled where he slept in it.

The cold weather was a little too much for "Turkey" Druhot's old soup bone. But he was the winner of the bat that Esterbrook put up for the player getting the most hits in the game.

Pembroke was back again with his old friends on Sunday last and appeared to like it. Pen is the same old reliable catcher this year that he was last and is a great favorite here.

Ferry Assin and Ed Laws were down Sunday to take part in the game and may play here all season. Perry is as good as ever and Ed got off on the right foot with one of the three hits in the game and no errors.

Tonneson and Berger are rather a hard combination in the way of twirlers for a bush team to go up against, and Homer Kirby is not out of his class at all when he is catching for them. And when it comes to hitting, Homer has them all beat.

Next time the boys will start the season with some Portland clothing company's team the same as last year, when they downed the Moyer Blues 8 to 0. The hard hitting bunch that were here last Sunday would have walked all over a better team than the untrained bunch we had.

Cap Blossom is naturally a sweet and kindly disposition, but he was hard to get along with last Sunday night. He had an awful grouch and even Brakke had lost the smile. But their intentions were good and time will fix it all.

The Portland Beavers did not win the first game of the season, either, and still they are out after the pennant in great shape and will be close to the top next fall. The same applies to St. Helens, so turn out and take an interest in the games. A good ball team is an advertisement for the town.

There should be a city officer at every game played this year. Too many were at the game last Sunday in an intoxicated condition, and the presence of some official would keep order.

VANISHED DANGERS.

He used to hate the idle rich.
And often spoke with dread
About the fearful dangers which
Were looming up ahead;
He saw a time when blood would flow
And anarchy be rife;
But that was when his hands were low,
He had the luck a year ago
To get a wealthy wife.
He used to say the millionaires
Were blinded by their greed;
He thought the world and its affairs
Were managed wrong indeed;
He saw the time when class and mass
Would wage a bloody strife,
When chaos would prevail. Alas!
Since then a change has come to pass
He has a wealthy wife.
He cannot understand today
Why those who toil complain,
The ills he feared are cleaned away,
No signs of strife remain.
Content to let things drift along,
He lives an easy life,
Forgoing, if sometimes the strong
Oppress the weak, that it is wrong
He has a wealthy wife.

Lillian Nowland and Oscar Lavolette were united in marriage at the home of E. H. Flagg in this city by City Recorder George Flagg last Monday afternoon. They are residents of Maygor and will make their future home at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Lavolette left here on the evening train Monday for a visit with friends at Astoria.
