JACK JOHNSON LOSES

What was beyond a doubt the most interesting game of the season was pulled off on the local grounds last Sunday when the St. Helens team and the Portland Giants, the colored Champions of the Pacific Northwest, met in 13 innings of hotly contested baseball. There was no time during the long game but that either side could have won out.

The Giants came across with the first ace of the game in the second chapter on a hit stolen base and an error by Joe Brough, but in the third the locals went after their scalp to the extent of two runs. Stevens was up first and got a single, and was advanced when Austin got on by the assistance of the watermelon demollisher that played third for the visitors. Perry sacrificed, and Laws walked. Two wild pitches scored Stevens and Austin.

It stood two to one until the sixth, when the dusky champions came through with four hits and managed to get another man around, tying the score. And the seventh was the lucky seven for the superstitious sons of Ham, for in that chapter, on a single hit and a lot of luck mixed with a little of the bone head business by the locals they chased three runs across, making the score five to two, but in the locals half of that chapter they raised their total to 4, and in the ninth got another that made it 5 and 5.

The first man up for the Giants in the tenth innig was hit by Stevens and it looked rather dark, he made the circuit on an error and a sacrifice hit and when the locals came to the bat it was a case of getting something or go home. Serr,

Joe Brough Had An Accident

the new catcher, started the innig with a safe one, Chandler struck out but while it was being done Serr stole second and Ballagh sacrificed him to third, Stevens came through with a hit and tied the score, though the game came pretty near breaking up at this point as the Giants claimed it was a foul, though it was undoubtedly a fair ball.

The visitors went out in one, two, three order in the eleventh, only four or five balls being pitched to them. It looked as though this was to be the locals' innig. Perry struck out, but Laws got a walk. Brakke sacrificed and Brough walked. A short hit by Serr filled the bases with two gone. Chandler boosted one to the left field fence that looked as though it was going over, but it did not, and a husky African named Hubbard pulled it down.

Ballagh opened the twelfth with a long fly to the center field. Stevens followed with a clean two base hit, but made a mistake of trying to cut first base on Ray Lattin, who is an umpire that does not over look such trifles even when they are in favor of the home team. Austin walked, stole second and third, and almost stole home.

Only three men faced the pitcher in the thirteenth for the Giants, and the first man up for St. Helens, Perry, was thrown out. Laws got a safe one, but was thrown out at second when Brakke knocked one to the shortstop, which Pete beat to first base. He stole second and a hit by Joe Brough brought the winning run across.

For interest it was a game that could not be beat, the score being close all the time and a lot of good base ball being played, but there was also some streaks of ball that was decidedly ragged. And there was also a lot two much rag chewing. The game started with two umpires, one white and the other black, but the decisions were all alike. The local man got off on the wrong foot, and there was nothing to do in the mind of the con but to even it up and for a number of innings it looked about as much like an umpires battle as a ball game. When it was either a matter of change or quit, the Africans consented to Ray Lattin going in and then there was a chance for good base ball and for the spectators to enjoy it. The services of Ray should be secured for every Sunday, as he is some ump and his eye does not go wrong very often. Aside from that if he was on the job every Sunday, the attendance would be better as people do not like to see a game that is filled with disagreements.

On account of lack of space and the fact that none of the Giants are known here we do not print their score this week. But they are a bunch of good sports in a ball game even if we do object to their color. And for the bunch here who rooted for them and bet against the home team we have no sympathy. They should have lost their money and if the local team had been as strong as usual they would have lost it sooner than they did. We have a team that can give the tar faces a skinning and not half try.

Clatskanie 9 Rainier 3—

That bunch of fat youngsters lowered the colors of 'Fatty Le Bire's' bunch against Sunday, and this time by a score of 9 to 3. This makes twice, while the one time that St. Helens has been up against Clatskanie, we got away with the game 6 to 4. Sunday's game at Clatskanie was a dandy and we can picture Shorty Thurston on the third base line saying his little, "Now I lay me" without the least trouble. And that is not half of it. Le Bire released Joe Haggin, the best twirler outside of the league in the state, and this makes the second time that Joe has given the big Frenchman cause to regret it. Go to them Joe. All success be with you until you get up against St. Helens, and then may you get your bumps.

OUR PORTLAND LETTER

Portland, Or., June 6 (Special)—A tri-county development league, comprising Sherman, Morrow and Gilliam counties, is a lively possibility in the near future. At a recent Portland Commercial Club luncheon, the development of this section was discussed. Conditions were described and the need for diversified farming, rather than sticking to wheat growing, was emphasized. To stimulate interest, it was suggested that prizes be offered for the best products and a tri-county fair, to be held in the Fair of 1912, may be arranged. The Commercial Club realizes this section is one immediately tributary to Portland and that it can be made much more productive than at present.

Interest in fruit raising for a preserving plant recently located at Lebanon was aroused at a meeting at Brownsville on the night of decoration day under the auspices of the local commercial club. It is possible a fruit growers' union will be formed that will work in harmony with one lately organized at Lebanon. The Portland Commercial Club was represented and it is believed that more attention will be paid to fruit growing in that section of the state.

Portland will have a commission form of government as soon as the required changes can be brought about. Mayor Simon has named a commission to draft a charter providing for the new form and the recent city election will only hasten the change, as all candidates were favorable to it.

Premium lists for the State Fair next September have been issued. Premiums amounting to $16,000 and $15,000 in racing purses will be hung up on the harness events alone. In addition to the awards for running races, general follows for the fair are well under way and it is promised this year's exposition of the state's resources will be bigger and better than ever. Dates have been fixed for September 11-16.

Portland and Oregon Development League officials took a prominent part in the convention of the Southwest Washington Development Association, held the first three days of the month at Chehalis, thereby building up a better understanding between the two states. The Oregon delegation received many compliments for its interest in its northern neighbors.

Oregon threshermen held a successful convention in Portland during the past week, there being a good attendance from all parts of the State. Good roads was quite naturally a subject in which much interest was shown and other angles of the threshermen's business were considered.
