COLUMBIA CITY

Columbia City is now up to date. It has a base ball team with variegated suits and a slab artist who will put the Mist cartoonist performance in the shade. Columbia is now well supplied with water transportation, two steamboats, and two gasoline launches and then we must not forget the launch "The Lovers Wheel," which needs two to handle the wheel, and then last Sunday it had the misfortune of hobnobbing with a cotton wood log.

With more of the fair sex coming home, we may look for regular visits by the Washingtonian.

Ira A. Sauerwein is still on the easy list with his gauge leg.

Well, well, we are rolling some, forty and fifty logs a day for a new camp is not bad.

Oh say, John when you have cut that wood log, you will be a man.

Mrs. Caples is moving into her house at Columbia City.

Too bad you had to stay home last Sunday and dish up hash. we missed your sunbeams very much.

If a few more of the fair sex come to our city we may yet boast of a Rose Carnival.

I hope the waste basket is out of order.
