Last Monday evening at about 9:30 the boat building establishment of W. E. Guild just below the foot of St. Helens Street caught fire and was a total loss. Several boats and engines were destroyed, and the amount of Mr. Guild's loss will run up to more than $1000. The fire department could not have kept the place from burning had it been the best in the world, as there was no chance to get at the fire soon enough, but for a while it looked as though the absence of a good company was going to cause the loss of the city hall.

The petition of G. B. Milloy for a liquor license at Scappoose precinct was denied by the county court last week, as it appeared that there were not enough signers on Mr. Milloy's petition.

Wm. M. Ross took in the Rose Show last week, and while in Portland attended the meeting of the bankers association.
