What was probably the biggest school meeting ever held in St. Helens was held at the school house last Monday night, when about one hundred of the voters of this district assembled at the school house for the purpose of electing school officers for the coming year. The term of Mrs. W. B. Dillard as director expired and Mr. L. R. Rutherford was elected by a large majority to fill the place. H. P. Watkins was re-elected as clerk he receiving a unanimous vote. The matter of the building of the new building was not taken up, as there will be a special election on the tenth of July for the purpose of settling that matter. So if you are in favor of it and want to see the best interests of the town advanced, and a step taken to promote the welfare of the children of the districts; say something to your neighbor about it and turn out on the tenth and vote right.

Mrs. W. A. Harris is in Astoria this week attending the Grand Lodge of the Pythian Sisters.

The following letters were unclaimed at the St. Helens post office at the end of the week ending June 17, 1911. W. R. Cantrill, Pete J. Dahl. Letters unclaimed by July 1st will be sent to the dead letter office.
M. C. GRAY P. M.

The Brinn building in the west part of town has been leased to Mrs. Fidler, who will run a hotel in it. It is well located for a large number of rock men, and should be well patronized.

Professor John Rude, of the Hill Military Academy, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ketel last Tuesday, on his way to Nehalem, where he will have charge of the summer encampment of his school.

All who have anything to exhibit at either the State Fair or the Astoria Centennial should put it aside at once and save it until Fair Commissioner C. E. Lake calls for it. Very shortly he will start on his round of the county, and call on everyone who has anything for exhibit.

For Sale.
 Six head of good grade jersey cows and sixty head of Angora goats.
J. W. VAN NATTA, Warreu.

FOR SALE—Household furniture. Inquire of Mrs. H. C. Wikoff Honlton Ore.

WANTED—A girl for general housework. Inquire at this office.

Next Sunday the fast Astoria team will be at this place and they have written up to tell us that they are coming after the long end of the gate receipts. They have won the last five games they played, and fully expect to get away with the locals. There seems to be a difference of opinion as to what the result will be.

Mr. Pat Kelly, of Warren, was a business visitor to the county seat on last Wednesday.

Commencing on Wednesday, June 28, there will be a series of lawn parties given at the residence of Mrs. Frank Brown, at Yankton, parties being given every Wednesday. Ice cream and cake will be served, the proceeds to go to the beautifying and improving of Yankton cemetery.

FOR SALE—About forty sacks of Burbank potatoes, old, in good condition, part large and part seed size. Also a few tons of old timothy hay, a little mixed with clover. Also cherries. C. J. LARSEN, Warren, Oregon.

Chris Walker is going around this week on cutches, as a result of forgetting to take his foot out of the way when he dropped a heavy piece of iron. One of his toes was broken, and he will be out of commission for the next two or three weeks.
