Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Columbia County.

A. L. Laufman, plaintiff, vs P H Laufman, defendant.

To P H Laufman, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 28th day of July, 1911, and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer or otherwise plead within said time the plaintiff for want thereof will apply to the court for the relief prayed in the complaint herein.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof for a period of six weeks, seven issues, in the Oregon Mist, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, in St. Helens, Oregon, pursuant to an order of the Honorable J. A. Eakin, duly made and entered herein.

The date of the first publication of this summons is June 16, 1911. The date of the last publication of this summons is July 28, 1911.

COLLIER and COLLIER,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.

SPORTS

With a jolly crowd of rooters and an abundance of good feelings the Rainier team came up last Sunday on the Str. Iralda for the purpose of beating the best ball team in th s part of the counry. They had at last got away with the fast Clatskanie bunch and thought that their education had progressed far enough to take a crack at a real championship nine.

They were met at the boat by a good bunch of fans and St. Helens people to let them know that the town was theirs, with the exception of the ball game, and a number of the Rainier people brought their dinner and enjoyed picnicing in the groves around town, but no one enjoyed it so much that they forgot to be on hand at the grounds at 2:30 sharp, so when the game was called by Umpire Morton there was a goodly delegation of the faithful from both towns in the grand stand and bleachers, and every last one of them had made the trip for the purpose of making a noise.

Thompson was the first man up for the visitors, and was walked. Larry followed with a neat sacrifice and advanced him to second, when Yett came up and smashed out a double just inside the third base line that scored him. About this time Jack Stacey suggested that they go home as the game was as good as won, while Ed Wilson, Fred Cramer and Sam LeBire smiled and said "I told you so." Stevens only got a little bit sore and struck out Granigan and Hoover.

Austin led off for the locals and hit a long fly to center, Serr striking out. Brakke got on with a hit, but was caught trying to steal second.

One, two, three was the fate of the visitors in the second, but the tale of St. Helens half of that inning reads far different. Clark was the first man up and seemed to just take naturally to the offerings of Haggin. The drive he sent to the fence in center will be remembered as one of the longest hits ever made here. It hit on the top of the fence and bounced on over, Clark making the round of the bases. This put the Rainier bunch a mile up in the air, and things followed in rapid fire order. Ballagh got on when Larry booted his easy roller, and Shea had the same good fortune when Yett failed to take to the kind he knocked. Owens advanced both of them with a neat sacrifice, and when big Bill Hoover dropped Laws long fly to right they both scored, Laws going to second. Stevens rolled a slow bunt to Haggin, but Laws beat the ball to third and Stevens got to first, and stole second. Austin smashed a double to right and they both scored, making it five to one in favor of St. Helens.

In the fifth two more went up on the the score board in favor of the locals and Pete Brakke won $5.00. Serr opened the inning with one of the hits that he is in the habit of getting, and Brakke followed with a smash over the left field fence. Brakke made a bet with Ballagh three years ago that he would get a home run before Ed did and it was not settled until Sunday.

In the sixth the real night mare of the game came. Six clean bingles, a sacrifice hit, two stolen bases and a walk netted six more runs for St. Helens and it was here that Haggin threw up the sponge and was replaced by Siebert.

In the seventh the visitors made a little spurt and cheered Le Bire up to the extent of causing him to get up from the bench and take an interest in the game, but it was only a teaser, for the lead that they had to go up against was to many for them, but in this chapter four runs went across, and they were every one of them earned runs. The locals annexed another one in the seventh making a grand total of fourteen, which satisfied even the most radical of the fans.

The score follows:

Peter Buzukos, the champion lightweight wrestler will meet Walt Johnson, a 150 pounder, at the City Hall Saturday night. Peter hails from Greece while Johnson comes from the country where all all real Johnsons come from, barring only the black ones. Each man has a lot of countrymen here and the match is looked upon as a sort of national affair.

CLATSKANIE WINS

The Hammond Lumber Co., the would be champions from Astoria, and the team that has beat all of them on the lower river, but got an awful skinning at this place, made another mistake last Sunday and strayed out of their own county and into Columbia, where there are some real baseball teams. This time they stopped at Clatskanie, and almost got away with a game, but the Indians were there in the home stretch and at the finish the score was all to the good and in their favor, 7 to 6. The game was a nip and tuck affair, the visitors leading up until the eighth inning when the braves tied the score, and the ninth passing uneventfully, the run put across by the home team in the last half of the tenth was the one that got the bacon. There was lots of hard hitting, and some pretty fielding, though it is probable that if either of Clatskanie's regular twirlers, Haggin and Bryant, had been on the job, the game would have been decided a lot sooner than it was.

Batteries, Clatskanie, Elliott, Uksela and Blackford; Hammond Lumber Co., Kellio and McDonald. Struck out by Kellio, 11. By Elliott, 14. Hits Clatskanie 18, Hammond Lumber Co, 12.

BASEBALL NOTES

Peter Brakke was certainly there.

The team that Rainier had here can put up a whole lot better game than they did Sunday. They got off on the wrong foot, and with the St. Helens team hitting the way they were there was nothing to it.

Haggin was hit hard, but that fact does not make him any the less a good pitcher. Joe was working good, but the support he had in the second inning was enough to throw anyone off. Three errors when each of them meant a run.

Dudley Clark is certainly some ball player and the way he hits is a sight to see. But it was good when Haggin passed him with two on and two out. Ballagh was the next up and got a clean single.

Serr is the best catcher that has been on the St. Helens diamond this year. He has out hit and out played all of them. And did you ever notice the way he gets under the foul tips? He is a regular shark at it.

Stevens has not lost a game for St. Helens this year, with the exception of the one that was forfeited by the umpire at Kalama, and he would have won that if it had went the full nine innings.

Next Sunday the Columbus Club will be here and a week from Sunday Kalama comes up to let us get even. The Columbus Club was formerly the C. Y. M. C. and out of 18 games played this year have lost but one. The week after Kalama plays here the team goes to Kalama, and the first Sunday in August they go down to Rainier. An excursion will be run to each of the out of town games and everyone should go. The game with the Columbus Club next Sunday will be the best of the season.

The game went off without any disagreeable rag chewing, and the Rainier boys and management seemed to be perfectly satisfied with the decisions of Mr. Morton, who held the indicator. It gave the people of St. Helens and the fans in particular a lot of satisfaction to have things pass off so well, as after the disagreements of last year it was feared that there might be some of the old feeling enter into the contest. As a result there will undoubtedly be a large crowd accompany the team when they go to Rainier.

EGGS FOR SETTING.

C. B. Harris has some of the famous Buff Orpingtons formerly owned by O. A. Hatton, of Clark County, Washington and he has left at the Mist office the diplomas showing that his chickens got the first and second prizes at the show of the Clark County Poultry Association in 1910. The diplomas show what kind of chickens Mr. Harris has and anyone that wants eggs should call and see them. For eggs write C. B. Harris, Houlton Oregon. They cost $1.50 for a setting of fourteen.
