1911 OREGON BLUE BOOK

The 1911 Oregon Blue Book is being circulated and a copy of it has reached the Mist office. This book contains more valuable information about the State of Oregon than anything its size that has ever been issued.

The first few pages read like a pamphlet sent out by some live commercial club, and give a comprehensive statement of the resources of the State and the opportunities here for the home seeker and investor. Then there is a copy of The Constitution, a directory of the State officials, including Commissions, etc., and a directory of all the county officials in the State. The 1910 Census of Oregon is given in detail. The book is illustrated with a large number of views from different sections.

The edition is limited and requests for the book will be filled in the order received. Anyone in this county desiring one should write to Ben W. Olcott, Secretary of State, Salem, at once, as there is no doubt but the demand will far exceed the supply.

Ringling Brothers At Portland

Announcement is made that on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 18 and 19, Ringling Brother's World's Greatest Shows will give two performances in Portland. As in past years St. Helens will send its percentage of the surrounding country to swell the throngs. This is the greatest of American circuses in every sense of the word, and an event not to be overlooked by the lovers of wholesome amusement.

For many years the Ringling Brothers have maintained the most popular as well as the best show. This year they are more than ever giving their patrons their moneys worth. Among the attractions under the twelve acres of canvas are Prof. Emorys troupe of trained baby elephants, the wonderful Schuman performing horses from the circus Schuman, Germany; Toque, the dog marvel of England which does a somersaulting performance on the back of a swiftly running horse; the wonderful Alex family of French aerialists; the great Crocker family of Gypsy riders; the Deltorelli family of Hungarian clowns, once entertainers in the court of the Shah of Persia; the Bonnetti family Italian acrobats; Castrillon family of Spanish acrobats; the Hogina family of Italian equestrians, and the fifty greatest clowns on earth.

In the menagerie is found Tiny Tim Tucker, the smallest elephant in America. In all there are forty elephants and 1,200 other wild beasts; comprising the rarest of zoological specimens. The morning parade is the greatest street spectacle ever devised for circus purposes. There are three miles of it and every mile a mile of wonders.

Ringling Brothers circus is twenty-eight years old. It began its career as a one horse affair in Baraboo, Wis., when the now famous brothers were scarcely more than children. In the face of the bitterest opposition it grew into the greatest amusement proposition the world has ever known. Its field extends over the entire earth. It has offices in every Capital in Europe and Asia and foreign workshops near Liverpool. It employs over 2,000 people, 1,286 of whom travel with the show.

EVERYTHING LOOKS GOOD

Mr. W. H. Smith, the fire warden for this county, has recently completed a trip covering nearly all of the territory over which he has supervision, and has sent us the following impressions which he has gained by traveling through the best country in the state:

I was impressed by the general advance in the amount of small grain raised especially wheat and oats. There are some very fine fields of winter wheat along the river front, mostly cut and in the shock. Also a general advance in the quality of the roads being built, due to the using of gravel and crushed rock. The old puncheon road is nearly all replaced by good hard roads on all of the main thoroughfares. The Nehalem Valley is now able to boast of a lot of gravel ballasted roads.

Better buildings seem to be the order of the day. Judson Weed, of Vernonia is putting up a building that would be a credit to any ordinary village, and I also observed many others that belong to parties whose names I do not know. The clearing of land seems to have taken a new start, also the bettering of the quality of the stock kept by the farmers. Everybody seems to be happy and contented down about Clatskanie, on the tide flats. The diking and ditching of this land has proceeded at a great rate and at some places it has been plowed and gardens planted, mostly of winter vegetables. It is my opinion that they look very good for the first crops on raw sod land.

Down back of Gable in the vicinity of Redtown, I saw the Holbrook Co's char pitting works, and at the time there were a good many stumps on fire. They looked like young coal pits. The people doing the work claim that it is a perfect success in the dry parts of the year, and Mr. Holbrook is very sanguine in regard to clearing logged off lands by this method.

As to fires, there are none in the county at present to speak of. If a fire gets started some of the many rangers soon find it, and put it out. Columbia County can boast of as fine a set of fire rangers as could be wished for. I take off my hat to them as a set of perfect gentlemen.
