Delinquent Tax List 1910

This advertised list of delinquent taxes for the year 1910 is in pursuance of an act of the State Legislature, which is embodied in Chapter 275 of the GENERAL LAWS OF THE 1911 SESSION.

The taxes on the following advertised real property became delinquent on the Fourth day of April, 1911, and are subject to a penalty of 10 per cent and interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum until they shall have been paid.

Any day after the expiration of six months after the taxes charged against the following real property are delinquent, the Sheriff is authorized to issue, to any one applying therefor, a certificate of delinquency upon payment of the taxes, penalty, interest and cost of advertising.

Certificates of delinquency shall bear interest from the date of issuance until redeemed at a rate not exceeding 15 per cent per annum.

whom food and encouragement given by the officers present, in tration of their nightly task in cities. The same men were seen busily sorting out great sacks of paper, showing how employme some description was found for the most unpromising material.

Work among the little ones demonstrated by a parade of gray gowned, white capped carrying in their arms tiny some only a week or two old many of them prison born. A of hungry, ragged children foll dancing round an Italian hurdy and fighting and playing with other. Food and coffee were d uted to the boys and girls, wh been brought up from the slums every afternoon as actual specim the raw material upon which the is working.

Then came the children of Nest," as the girls' home at C is called. As the neatly dr brigade, consisting of about fif tle girls—all of whom have bee cued from drunken and brutal p —trooped into the hall, where danced and formed themselves i zareba, loud applause reso throughout the building. A numb woman officers followed, visiting an prisoners in jail—realistic d strations being given of refra cases who refused to go back to cells.

The industrial and land colon Hadleigh, Essex, where more 1,000 acres of land is being and intensive garden culture is ried on, was represented by a cession of gardeners, beekeepers, herds, poultry and dairy farmers, rying poultry or dairy produce, or vegetables or the implements their labor. The farm proper co more than 1,000 head of horses, sheep and lambs and pigs, grows quantities of grain and roots and soon be busy haymaking and har ing.

The work of the emigration d ment was also indicated by mea tableaux and statistics were showing that the army now carri its social agencies in fifty-six c tries and preaches salvation in t nine languages, while it possesses social institutions, 621 day schools twelve military and naval homes, addition to more than 100,000 c of all ranks.
