OUR PORTLAND LETTER

Portland Or., 24 (Special)--A step of permanent constructive benefit was that taken last Saturday night at the Portland Commercial Club, when business men gathered at a dinner to discuss the benefits of recent excursions to Klamath Falls, Central Oregon and Aberdeen, Wash. The big dinner room was filled by men of affairs and the experiences given and the policy outlined for future excursions were of great value.

The matter developed into a symposium on the attitude of Portland business men to outside territory in the two states and was a survey of conditions existing from Aberdeen to Klamath and in Central Oregon. The result will be a closer tie between Portland and the outlying country and this promises to be of great aid in future development.

Redmond will hold a potato show on November 2. This is the date the O. W. R. & N. demonstration train arrives at Redmond and the two events will undoubtedly bring a very large number of farmers from the surrounding country to Redmond. At the same time a meeting of dairymen will be held to organize an association.

The joint line of the Oregon Trunk and the Deschutes Railroad will be open to passenger and freight traffic to Bend from the Columbia River on November 1. The new lines are now operating to Opel City.

An apple tree near Albany has been sold for $600. It is everbearing, maturing fruit at all seasons of the growing period, with buds, blossoms and apples on the tree at the same time. A nursery company has bought the tree and will try to establish a new everbearing variety.

Dairymen and butter and cheese makers will gather in Portland December 6, 7 and 8 for the annual convention and special plans are under way to make this year's gathering the largest and most interesting ever held. Experts from the east will be in attendance to judge the different exhibits, of which there will be many, and will know authorities on various topics of interest will deliver addresses. There will be more and better prizes offered than ever before.

The program has just been made up for the first annual convention of the Oregon State Hotel Association, which will be held in the convention hall of the Portland Commercial Club on December 5 and 6. The hotel man will discuss matters of mutual interest and seek ways to increase tourist travel to this state from California and the East.

Eugene will hold its biggest apple show on November 3 and 4 the coming exhibit throwing all previous shows far in the shade. The annual fruit exhibition is growing all the time in importance because of increasing orchard acreage around Eugene, and this year the festival will take on more than local interest. Prizes have been offered that make it an object for fruit growers to complete.

Lakeview will add agriculture to its high school course as soon as its new building is finished. This is a new and important feature of the course of study and one that progressive communities are adopting.
