POMONA GRANGE.

The Columbia County Pomona Grange will hold its next quarterly session, Saturday, November 4th, in the Yankton grange hall, Yankton Oregon. A good attendance is expected and a most pleasant and profitable meeting is anticipated. We hope to have one of the Professors of the Oregon Experiment Station to deliver a lecture on the growing and care of fruit.

J. H. Collins, Secretary.

Houlton School—

The people of Houlton have the progressive spirit in regard to the improvement of their public school. The school board have recently purchased new maps, a telurian, unabridged dictionaries, drinking fountains, and other needed supplies. At a mass meeting held Wednesday night, the people expressed themselves as favoring the acquiring of more ground, to have at least a three acre school ground, and also to erect a building for a play house and gymnasium. Houlton is surley on the map.

Pender Pleads "Not Guilty"—

J. A. Pender, under indictment for the murder of Daisy Wehrman on Labor Day, was brought before Judge Eakin last Tuesday and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge made in the indictment. John Stevenson appears for the defense, District Attorney R. R. Tongue and Deputy W. A. Harris for the prosecution. Very few were present in the court room besides the jurors, court officers and Mrs. Pender who has been with her hosband as much as possible ever since he was arrested. No date was set for trial, the prosecution expressing a willingness to proceed at once but the defense wishing for a postponement. As Mr. Tongue will be busy with the other counties over which his duties extend for some time he could not say at what time he would be able to attend here again, and the matter has not been settled yet. The trial may be some time during the winter, but it is very probable that it will go over until the May term of court.

The regular annual city election will be held in Houlton on Monday next, and the offices of Mayor, Councilmen and Treasurer will be filled for the coming year. The following nominations have been made. For Mayor, R. L. Welch; For Councilmen, two years, L. H. Combs and Frank Keever; one year, P. C. Crouse; Treasurer, Chas, Graham.

Heat for School—

Arrangements have been completed during the past week for the heating of the school house, and a contract let for the installation of a heating plant. The heat will come from the boilers of the St. Helens Mill Co., the pipe leading to the school house connecting with the mill pipe at the store of Jas. Muckle and Son, and the pipe line being laid up Cowlitz Street to the corner of D. J. Switzer's home, extending north from there along the foot of the bluff. The heat will cost the school $225 per year, which is much less than it would cost if the boiler was at the school house, to say nothing of the increased quality of the heat and of the great convenience in the arrangement that has been decided upon. The cost of laying the pipes and getting ready is just the same as the plant would cost.

B. J. Keelan, the Deer Island road boss, was a caller at the Mist Office on Wednesday and informs us that his district is one of the progressives in this county. The Deer Island people are using gravel on the roads, as they have some good gravel pits handy, and no suitable rock for crushing. This year there has been a part of the Goble road put in good condition, over 1000 feet of road near the Canaan school house graveled, and about 1500 feet near the Hamil place, besides various bridges built and considerable other road work. Mr. Keelan marketed a pig that weighed 504 pounds, which is sure going some.

The National Stock Co. was here this week and played at the City Hall on Monday and Tuesday evenings. Both performances were well attended and received hearty applause.

Mrs. Katie Mathews, of Houlton, spent last Monday in Portland.

A petition is being circulated this week and will be presented to the council at their next meeting for the improvement of Hemlock Street out through Columbia Park. At present, while there is plenty of room for a wagon to drive over any of the streets out that way, and they are all clear of brush, still there are none of them that are improved to any great extent. This improvement, if made, will be assessed to the abutting property and will undoubtedly increase the value far more than the improvement will cost.

Burke's trial Saturday—

John E. Burke, under indictment for the forging of a note for $300 which was cashed at the State Bank of Rainier, was to have had his trial on Tuesday last but owing to the fact that one of the principal witnesses, Mr. Lottman, was not on hand it was postponed until Saturday. Burke has been in the same kind of trouble several times before, and passed a note for the same amount, $300, in Washington County some time ago, for which E. B. Tongue prosecuted him and for which he served several years at Salem.

Mrs. F. Owens, of Wisconsin, will open her Gift Store on Columbia Street tomorrow afternoon, and invites the ladies of St. Helens to be present. She will have a first class stock of novelty goods, books, etc., and should do well in this city. Mrs. Owens was acquainted with the Rosses in her former home.

License to wed was issued last Saturday to Julia M. Hitchcock and Joseph Gaida, of Clatskanie.

Mrs. D. W. Richardson, who has been in St. Vincent's Hospital for the past two weeks as the result of an operation, is getting along nicely.

The Ladies Aid of the Congregational Church will meet with Mrs. Wm Muckle, Thursday, November 2nd.

Tommy Allen, the six year old son of Prof. J. W. Allen, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland last Friday morning. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at Forest Grove, Rev. Hilton, of the Congregational Church, officiating. Tommy was buried beside his mother in Forest Hill Cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by sorrowing friends of the family.

Mrs. Ernest Younger, of Portland, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dart.

Mrs. H. E. La Bare has returned from Clatskanie after a several days visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs W. B. Dilland and sons Walton Mason made the trip by auto to Portland on Wednesday last.

The trial of Ernest Johnson, under indictment on a charge of larceny in a warehouse, was postponed until Saturday, and we understand that Johnson has agreed to plead guilty, provided the charge be changed to plain larceny. This case has been on the docket for some time and readers of the Mist will remember it as the one in which a considerable amount of valuable merchandise was taken from the Scappoose landing of the Str. America.
