Just a little reminder to the City Council that the cross walk from the City Hall to the M. E. Church is quite muddy. And there may be others.

John Dolan of Warren was on the streets of St. Helens today. Mr. Dolan is still the same staunch Republican as of yore and predicts that Taft will again be elected.

A. Freeman a prosperous farmer from Watren, was in town today.

J. W. Saxton has made his apple orchard known to the outside world and has orders for all the Northern Spy Apples that he can furnish and at good prices. His are not the "just as good" kind but are the very best there is.
