The beauty of a villege like Scappoose is determined by the neatness of its walks, fences and gardens, all of what may be kept up with small cost, why not do it?

Letters from C. Whitney and W. T. Grewell now at Palm Beach, Florida give flowing accounts of that newly developed section of the world.

A splendid alternative touring route through Oregon and Northern California, as a part of Pacific Highway, has been discovered by H. L. Keats, J. B. Yeon, and E. E. Coovert, prominent Portland automobile men, who journeyed recently from that city down into the Golden State.

The party shipped their machine to The Dalles, and went from thence via Moro, Shaniko, Antelope, Metatius and Prineville to Bend. By the evening of the second day out they had reached Silver Lake in Lake County. From here they journeyed to Paisly, Lakeview, and the border. Their first California stopping place was Alturas in Modoc County. Going on and crossing the Pitt River at Fall River Mills. The end of the fourth day saw the party in Redding, Shasta County, whence they continued into California over the regular Pacific Highway route.

Boys may be had and sometimes girls. The older ones at ordinary wages and others to be schooled and cared for in return for slight services rendered.
