

WARREN

Dr. Shelby of Salem was a visitor at the Baker home for a few days recently.

Mr. Newman has been appointed as road supervisor for the coming year. He served in that capacity last year and proved a very able man for the place.

Miss Hannah Sandstrom has taken the position of telephone operator. She began her duties Monday, Jan. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Erickson Jr. were Portland visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Since the cold weather came there has been a good deal of sleighing. Messrs Newman, Calberg, Lund and G. Johnson are among those seen out riding in their sleighs.

A party of young people consisting of Misses Bertha Ream and Alice Erickson, Messrs. Guy Nelson and Fred Ream went to the St. Helens rink Saturday night. They reported a good time.

Mr. J. Erickson Sr. and Mr. O. A. Erickson were in Portland on business Wednesday.

Mrs. F. N Hoyt is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

The order of W. O. W. held their installation of officers at Erickson's hall Saturday night.

Church News

Despite the snow and consequent difficulty in getting out, a full house greeted the pastor of the Methodist church at the opening number of the January series last Sunday evening. "Doubters" was the subject discussed. According to the speaker those troubled with doubt fall into the three classes; temperamental doubters; doubters whose faith has atrophied by disuse; neglect of honest convictions; and the things they don't believe as an excuse for their present conduct.

The Subject for next Sunday night is "Knockers" Everyone is invited. Have you heard the choir lately?
