

THE OREGON MIST

TWICE A WEEK

VOL. XXXI.

ST. HELENS, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 31 1912

NO. 13.

Craig-Wilson

Roy Craig and Iva Wilson were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in St. Helens on Tuesday evening at 6.30. The immediate families of the contracting parties were present when Rev. A. A. Heist, of the M. E. Church, said the words which made this popular young couple husband and wife.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served and the newly weds took the train for Portland and other points where they will spend a few days after which they will return to St. Helens.

Roy Craig is a prosperous young business man of St. Helens where he conducts a barber shop and is well and favorably known by a large number of people. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wilson and is a very popular young lady. The Mist joins in extending to the happy couple best wishes and congratulations.

Local Mention

Andrew Philip from Alexander Bay, New York, arrived in St. Helens this week and will spend some time visiting with his three brothers, John, Alex and Wm Philip of this place.

Mrs. A. L. Woodard who has owned a tract of land at Marshland in this county for a number of years has had a portion of it platted into city lots and it is now on the market. Marshland is a very pretty spot for a summer, or winter home as well as being a good point for investment. The large dyking companies have just finished reclaiming large tracts of land around it which is being bought up very fast and put into cultivation.

Mrs. Woodard has placed an Ad with the Mist which will appear in our next issue telling of this tract and its advantages. Her address in Portland is 253 Sixth Street, and she will be at Marshland most of the time. A letter addressed to either place will reach her.

Letters undelivered at the St. Helens, Oregon postoffice for the week ending January 27th, 1912.

Alex Allison, 1 letter; J. W. Brown, 1 letter; Joe Church, 1 letter; Herman Killberg, 1 letter.

Letters unclaimed by February 10th will be sent to the Dead letter Office.

M. C. Gray, P. M.

Mr. Webb of the Columbia Iron & Steel Co. was in St. Helens Saturday purchasing lumber for the office buildings and making arrangements for the commencement of work on the iron smelter. Within a few weeks work will be going in full blast on the furnace and it is the intention to have the plant in operation by July 1st.

The St. Helens Commercial Club will hold a meeting at the Council Chambers in the City Hall on Friday night at 8 o'clock and a full attendance is desired. Matters of importance will be discussed.

Misses Dorothy Wright, Ruby McKay and Emily Marshall from Portland, are visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jeffcott.

Mrs. John Thorpe and daughter Ernestine, from Portland are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stone in Columbia Park.

Dr. Lowe, Feb. 14.

County Clerk LaBare has issued the following marriage licenses since last report: Ota Guinn and Geo. Campbell, both of Rainier; Mary Wagner and Barton W. Simmons, of Portland; Iva Wilson with Roy Craig, both of St. Helens.

Sarah Dixon Being Raised

The Sara Dixon, which was blown up about two weeks ago is being raised. The body of Fireman

Knowles was found in the fire room but the bodies of the Captain and Mate have not been recovered.

False Advertising

A merchant in Portland advertised that he had bought a stock as receiver from a firm that had failed and that he had bought the stock for 41 cents on the dollar and paid $6500 for it. He was arrested for inserting a false advertisement in the papers and the facts were that he only paid $690 for the stock and that the firm had not failed. He was convicted and fined $50.00 for his falsehood.

Mr. Lindahl, one of the prosperous farmers of the Warren neighborhood, was transacting business at the county seat on Monday.

Frank Hill, the foreman at the Columbia County Mill, had his hand quite badly mashed Monday, in some of the machinery. He will be able to resume work within a few days.
