Miss Alice Erickson visited relatives in Portland last week.

Mrs. Baker is visiting her daughter Mrs. Morton Tompkins at Gervais, Oregon.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers, and their sympathy and kindness during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. A. Bjorkman and family.

Local Mention

Carlton Lewis, President of the State Bank of Rainier, is looking after business matters in St. Helens today.

The Tuesday Evening 500 Club, was entertained by Mrs. L. G. Ross at her home on Willamette Street last night. Mrs. W. A. Harris won the honors and a beautiful prize. A most delightful evening was spent by the members and their husbands and a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Jeffcott and Mrs. Stone.

Base Ball fans are requested to meet at the City Hall Friday night where plans will be discussed for the coming season. It is desired to have a big turnout and as nearly everybody is interested in the great game a large attendance is expected. Don't forget the date Friday evening at 7:30 at the City Hall.

Episcopal Services

ST. HELENS

Services in the Episcopal Church at 7:30.

Sunday School at 2:30; Confirmation Instruction at 4:30.

GOBLE

Confirmation Instruction at 2:30.

A. Freeman, a prominent farmer from Warren, is in the city today.

An Episcopal Sunday School will be organized at the Episcopal Church next Sunday at 2:30 o'clock. Every one interested is requested to be present.

R. H. Mitchell, editor of the Cowitz County News of Kalama, and formerly a resident of St. Helens, was in town Saturday. He expressed great surprise at the wonderful growth St. Helens has made during the past few years, and is quite optimistic as to the future of the Lower Columbia country.

The Misses Ada George and Leo Wilkins were seen "doing the town" on horseback Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westby were Portland visitors Saturday.

A delegation from the Yankton Fair Association appeared before the County Court to-day and applied for an appropriation for a county fair to be held somewhere near Yankton or St. Helens this fall. A law passed by the last legislature makes it possible for the county court to make such appropriations and upon the showing made by the delegation the County Court made an order setting apart $200 for such fair for the year 1912.

It is the intention of the Association to hold a fair in which all citizens of Columbia County will be invited to participate and premiums will be offered for best exhibits in livestock and poultry exhibits as well as fruit and agricultural products.

Miss Carrie Elbertson of Portland visited over Sunday with Mrs. D. J. Switzer.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. T. Green, who live on the Island, died at the hospital in Portland Saturday and was buried in the Warren cemetery Sunday.

Dr. Lowe,

The better your eyes see, the better and quicker decision your brain will make. Your eyes plus your brain equal you. If you have defective sight Dr. Lowe's glasses fitted by his method will strengthen your eyes and brain. He does not go from house to house. There is a reason, consult him about your eyes and glasses. Wednesday Feb. 14 at Hotel St. Helens. Scores of reference. Remember one day only.

A game of Basket Ball will be seen the Rainier High School team and the St. Helens High School team will be played in the gymnasium at the new school house. Admission 25 cents. Everybody invited.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will have a dinner at the Guild Hall Friday evening at which time, a lunch will be served for 25 cents. Everybody is invited.

Dr. Lowe the optician of Portland who is to be here Feb. 14, has made 7 trips here in the past year and is building up a fine business. Those who have purchased his glasses speak well of him, his skill, prices and business methods.
