

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE COUNTY

THE OREGON MIST

TWICE A WEEK

VOL. XXXI.

ST. HELENS, OREGON, SATURDAY, FEB. 17, 1912

NO. 18.

Local Mention

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Rutherford were Portland visitors during the week.

Jack Dupain says he can save money to the farmers if they will see him about powder for blasting stumps.

Mr. Robinette has leased the 5 acre farm of Mrs. E. E. Briggs at Yankton and will put the entire tract into potatoes.

Judge T. B. McDevitt, one of the prominent attorneys from Portland, was a St. Helens visitor Thursday.

Geo. H. Flagg, arrived in St. Helens Friday from Elgin and will spend several days in this city. He says Elgin is a good town and is growing fast.

Mrs. Briggs, who lived at Yankton for a number of years has gone to Spokane where she will make her home in the future with her daughter.

L. E. Gulker writes from Kingfisher, Oklahoma that he will be back to St. Helens and Rainier about the last of March ready to take up any plastering work that may be offered.

Contracts have been let for the erection of a two story business building on Strand Street between the Mill Co. office and the wigwam saloon. Mr. Walter Blakesley is the owner of the property. The first floor will be fitted up for store rooms and the second story will be a lodging house.

Hon. Eugene W. Chafin, Prohibition Candidate for President in 1908, one of America's distinguished orators will lecture at the Court House this [Saturday] afternoon at 2 o'clock. Everybody invited to hear this great man talk on a great subject.

Mrs. Arthur George was the hostess of the 500 Club last Tuesday evening at her hospitable home on Columbia Street and nearly every member of the club was present. Mrs. W. A. Harris again carried off the honors of the evening. A most delightful lunch was enjoyed by some of the husbands as well as the members.

The students and their friends who went to St. Helens last Saturday had a most enjoyable time. They have voted the St. Helens schools and teachers to be royal entertainers. St. Helens plays basketball against Rainier in the K. P. Hall. As they have a fast team promises to be a good exhibition—Rainier Review.

Judge Eakin was here Monday for a short time rendering a few decisions, amongst them being the Briggs divorce case which was tried last month and taken under advisement by the court. The decision of the court was that the defendant, Mrs. Briggs, have the decree.

LIFE SAVERS

There are two kinds—one that protects the lives of those that are shipwrecked, and the one that gives you quality goods at moderate prices, that's Wellington.

Officers Elected

Officers elected for the coming year of the Commercial Club are as follows: Pres. Wm. Ross; Vice Pres. J. H. Collins; Sec-Treas. A. T. Laws; who together with Von Gray and M. E. Miller constitute the executive committee of the Club. Many new members have been added to the Club during the past few weeks and much more interest than formerly is being shown.

Final Number

The final number of the Peoples Lyceum Course will be given at the City Hall next Monday night. Ex-Governor Hoch of Iowa is to be the speaker. Mr. Hoch is one of the foremost platform orators of America. The opportunity afforded the people of St. Helens to hear so eminent a public man should be eagerly accepted by all.

The committee desires to remind patrons that family tickets are not transferable.

YANKTON

Last Friday the first month of the Yankton school with Mrs. Wilson as Principal closed with examinations in all the grades. Mrs. Wilson is very much pleased with the improvement made by her pupils during the past month, while the primary room with Miss Huld as teacher is doing excellent work. The following are the names of the pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the month.

Than Brown, Martin Briggs, George Walker, George Rathbun, Willie Bolster, Lawrence Barger, Fred Rudt, Marie Walker, Marie Anderson, Berenice Rathbun, Edna Bonney, Iris Griffin, Lena Walker. Primary room—Ralph Butts, Thurman Jeffries, Gertie Bonney, Lena Bonney, Ada Bolster, Lola Stater and Amy Rudat.

Don't forget the entertainment Saturday night at the Grange hall.

The roads beyond Yankton are almost impassible. While the new grades between here and Houlton bears the heavy teaming of the past month with out flinching.

The Hyde boys are making a good showing with their stump puller these fine days. They will have a handsome place, when cleaned out.

J. N. Brinn has been doing some "classy" work with his engine, cleaning off the front of his place also some for Frank Brown along the creek.

Mrs. Blackstone of Portland has bought several acres near Sherman's Mill including the mill site. She has been moving in her fine minora chickens this week and will become a permanent settler.

GOBLE NEWS

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lengacher was buried Feb. 13th. Born Feb. 12th. We extend to them our sincerest sympathy in their bereavement.

At the last regular meeting of Umptata Tribe No. 24 I. O. R. M. it was decided to give a social dance on the night of Feb. 24th.

Capt. Olsen of the North King was in Portland this week visiting.

A peculiar incident happened to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Mellville last week. They had started to drive to Goble and had proceeded a short way when they were stopped by two coyotes in the road. The animals refused to get out of the way and let them pass. Mr. Mellville got out of the wagon and attempted to beat them out of the way with a stick but could not move them. He then returned home for his gun but when they saw him coming with it they disappeared in the brush near the roadside.

Mr. A. C. Makinster and Mrs. C. C. Starnes were in Rainier one day this week on business.

Mr. A. C. McLaughlin and family of Portland have moved out on their farm back of Goble.

The manual training department of the Goble School received a shipment of lumber Monday. This lumber is to be used by the children of this department. Mrs. G. F. Collins principal of the school is devoting especial attention to the department.

WEST DEER ISLAND

Mrs. Jack Appleton went to Seaside this week on business.

The way Joe Holiday went through Columbia City Friday you would think his horses were running away.

What did you say Arthur the kitchen stove was getting cold?

Our principal Miss Eva Burns visited in Portland the last of the week.

The new addition Ben Lee put on his dwelling home looks quite nifty.

We learn that Frank Kellan is teaching school at Batchelor Flat.

Elwood Bennett visited his sister at Portland last week.

We learn that the Grange intends to build a larger hall, good for the Grange.

Mrs. Lowe purchased a fine sewing machine.

Mrs. F. Gill made a trip to Houlton Friday.

E. J. Barnes has gone to B. C.

Mrs. F. Loyd visited with Mrs. Ino Popejoy of St. Helens Friday.

Our new side-walk helps some. Mr. and Mrs. J. Gattens made a trip to St. Helens Tuesday.

Hazel Britton is working for Mrs. D. Burns at Columbia City.

Blythe Gattens visited her parents Sunday. She is working at Houlton.

Born to the wife of David McCune, a son Sunday the 11th.

Mrs. Stuart and Mrs. Lillard visited at Portland a few days last week.

Fred Yelks took in the dance at Scappoose Saturday, he reports having a dandy time.

Dan Burns made a flying trip to Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Tucker and sister visited Portland Sunday.

Miss Ingles visited friends here last week.

Miss Louise Adams visited Mrs. Lowe at Columbia City Sunday.

REUBEN NOTES

Mrs. J. Linton and children of Portland, visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Linton.

Mrs. Flora Fowler of Goble was a visitor in town Monday.

Mrs. Chas Link of Neer City, Mrs. E. G. Jones of Tide Creek and Mrs. Henry Wasser of Red

Town were in town on Tuesday.

M. H. Tipton and family moved to the Columbia Timber Co. Camp on Monday. Mr. Tipton has accepted the position of running the camp, to supply water for their works.

Henry Wasser has accepted the position of foreman in the construction of roads for the Columbia Timber Co. The company began putting in logs last Monday.

H. M. Fowler our Deputy Sheriff at Goble may be good at catching criminals but the report is, down here, he is slow at catching hogs.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR CLATSKANIE COUNTY.

William H. Bruce, Plaintiff vs. Carrie L. Bruce, Defendant.

To Carrie L. Bruce, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court on or before the 20th day of March 1912, which is six weeks after the 17th day of February 1912, date ordered for the first publication of summons, and if you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for relief provided for in his complaint, to-wit: for a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant, and the care and custody of the minor children be awarded to the plaintiff, and for such other and further relief as in the Court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication by the order of Hon. James Darr, County Judge of Clatskanie County, Oregon, which order is dated February 15th, 1912.

H. G. Lake, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Date of first publication Feb. 17th 1912. Date of last publication March 30th 1912.
