At a dance given by the Rainier Base Ball Team in that city on the 16th of March the club netted over $100. At a dance given by the base ball team in St. Helens on the same date the team netted $12. In Rainier the hall, the music, the supper and the advertising were donated for the benefit of the team. In St. Helens all these things were paid for. Our attention was called to this matter by some members of the St. Helens team and upon closer investigation we find that there was quite a difference in the affairs in the matter of publication. In Rainier the dance was taken up by the members of the ball team and their friends and everything was done to make it a financial success in the name of and for the club. In St. Helens the dance was advertised as a private affair and only a very few people knew that the ball club had anything to do with it, as a consequence the same interest was not manifested as undoubtedly would have been had it been known that the ball club was giving the dance.

Portland is now wrestling with a band of outlaws calling themselves the I W W something or other. They are opposed to everything that it takes to constitute good government, especially honest labor. They resort to violence and anarchy. They are the worst class of undesirables. The police of that city are kept on the move all the time in an effort to keep down trouble and prevent bloodshed. To judge from the feeble effort of the police department of that city to prevent another crowd of undesirables from breaking up a meeting where an English General was to speak on the boy scout movement some few weeks ago, it seems that the outlaws will have far the best of the argument. The feeble efforts, or rather the entire failure of effort, on the part of the police department of the city, to stop the disgraceful scene whereby Gen. Baden Powell was prevented from speaking from a public platform, necessarily leads an outsider to conclude that the police are either afraid to do their duty or are to be classed with the lawless and undesirables.

Gilbert L. Hedges, of Oregon City, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for District Attorney, of the Fifth Judicial District. It is not likely that he will have any opposition among the Democrats for the nomination, and that he will be the man whom the Republican will have to defeat. From all appearances now E. B. Tongue, the present District Attorney, will be the Republican candidate, for the people are not warming up to the idea of turning a man down for a second term who has done his full duty, and who has proved himself one of the most able and vigorous prosecutors that ever held the office.

We have been informed that Geo. W. Barnes, of Clatskanie, has decided to withdraw from the race for the Republican nomination for County Judge, thus leaving the field to W. H. Cooper, of Rainier, and W. A. Harris, of St. Helens.

SCAPPOOSE

Again St. Patrick's Day came and with it came Mrs. Jane E. Dean's 84th birthday.

Her many friends were so happy to have had her with them another year and gladly accepted an invitation to a reception held the 18th, issued by her daughter Mrs. May Getchell.

The house was beautifully decorated in colors harmonizing with the occasion. Guests began to arrive about three P. M. and kept Mrs. Getchell and Mrs. Margaret Reid busy receiving until nine o'clock.

The tokens of remembrance were numerous and appropriate, and every one present entered into the spirit of merry making and Grandma was happiest of all.

A program was interspersed at intervals throughout the afternoon punch and cake were served as refreshments.

Guests from a distance were Mrs. Margaret Reid and daughter Miss Eve Duffy of Milwaukie, Ore., Grandma Reid of Wankan Iowa and Mrs. P. King of Ellendale, North Dakota.
