In The Circuit Court For The State Of Oregon For Columbia County.
 State of Oregon, Plaintiff,
 VS.
 E. E. Quick, as administrator of the estate of Patrick Hughes, deceased, all heirs at law of said decedent, (if any there be), and all persons interested in said estate. Defendants.
 It appearing to the court by the information filed in the above entitled court and cause, by A. M. Crawford, Attorney General and M. E. Miller Deputy District Attorney of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Oregon on behalf of the State of Oregon, plaintiff herein, that on or about the 29th day of June, 1898, Patrick Hughes died in the County of Columbia, State of Oregon, intestate, and without heirs, leaving therein personal property, appraised in the aggregate at the sum of $14016.50.
 That the above named defendant, E. E. Quick of Columbia County, Oregon, was duly appointed administrator of the estate of the said Patrick Hughes, deceased, and duly qualified as such administrator on or about the 9th day of July, 1908, and letters of administration were duly issued to him by order of the County Court, of said Columbia County, Oregon, on said date, and thereupon he proceeded to take possession of said personal property of said estate and to administer thereon in pursuance of the authority vested in him by law and said letters of administration; that said administrator has paid all lawful claims and demands of every kind and nature whatsoever existing against said estate, including the costs and expenses of administration, and has fully administered said estate and rendered his final account to the said County Court, which final account showed that he had converted into cash all of said personal property which was not money, and that there remains a residue in his hands after paying all claims against said estate, of $10036.32 and no other property of any kind whatsoever; and thereupon the said County Court, of Columbia County, Oregon, made a final order approving said final report of said administrator and closing said estate, and directing that the administrator should hold said cash until disposition thereof should be made by a competent court, and that said administrator still has in his possession the said sum of $10036.32, which constitutes all of the property remaining and belonging to the said estate of Patrick Hughes, deceased.

I will, therefore, on Monday the 22nd day of April A D 1912, at the hour of 11 o'clock in the forenoon on said day, at the front door of the court house in the City of St. Helens, in Columbia County, Oregon, sell or sell by public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash in lawful money of the United States, all the right, title and interest, the said defendant, or either of them, has or had at the date of execution of the mortgage, to-wit: On the 21st day of 1911, in or to be had, subject as is described, to satisfy said execution and order of sale, together with accruing costs.
 Dated at St. Helens, Columbia County, Oregon, this 23rd day of March, A D 1912.
 A. E. Thompson,
 Sheriff of Columbia County, Oregon.
 First publication hereof, March 23rd 1912.

 "I refused to be operated on, the morning I heard about Cardui," writes Mrs. Elmer Sickler, of Terre Haute, Ind. "I tried Cardui, and it helped me greatly. Now, I do my own washing and ironing."

Take CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic
 Cardui is a mild, tonic remedy, purely vegetable, and acts in a natural manner on the delicate, womanly constitution, building up strength, and toning up the nerves. In the past 50 years, Cardui has helped more than a million women. You are urged to try it, because we are sure that it will do you good.
