It appearing to the court by the information filed in the above entitled court and cause, by A. M. Crawford, Attorney General and M. E. TRENHOLM
Eston Johnston's smiling face was seen on our street last Sunday.

Mr. Bosworth of Boise Idaho, has bought one of our attractive homesites, and is preparing to build on it.

Mr. Duff moved back to Portland the first of the week. Mrs. Duff has been in poor health for some time, and they wanted to get nearer to medicinal attendance. We were very sorry to lose them as they were held in very high esteem by every one.

Mr. D. T. Gerdes and his estimable wife were here a short time ago, looking at a corner lot we have for sale. He was delighted with the location and told us confidentially that as soon as he could dispose of his interests in Houlton and St. Helens he would start something.

We are now entering what looks to be a red hot political campaign, and as we haven't any money to give, we would like to give some advice. Do not let your love of party make you lose sight of the man. The forum or pulpit or street corner is not the place to take the true measure of the man. His own fire side is the only place to get the real thing. There he lays aside his mask. Here he is what he is, an angel, or cur, hero, or humbug. The world may crown him with jewels, or pelt him with ancient eggs. What his reputation is before the public counts for nothing, if his babies dread his home coming and his patient little wife swallows her heart every time she asks him for a five dollar gold piece, he is he is a fraud of the first water. He may pray morning noon and night, till he ruptures a suspender, and howl Hallelujah till his roar shakes the eternal hills, but if he kicks the family cow and caresses a 50 cent hound pup and with holds from his family his finer sympathies and affections to bestow on a peroxidized iron blond beauty, he is a gold brick and his name is MUD.
