State of Oregon. Plaintiff,
VS.
E. E. Quick, as administrator of the estate of Patrick Hughes, deceased, all heirs at law of said decendent, (if any there be), and all persons interested in said estate. Defendants.

It appearing to the court by the information filed in the above entitled court and cause. by A. M. Crawford, Attorney General and M. E. Miller Deputy District Attorney of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Oregon on behalf of the State of Oregon, plaintiff herein, that on or about the 29th day of June, 1908, Patrick Hughes died in the County of Columbia, State of Oregon, intestate, and without heirs, leaving therein personal property, appraised in the aggregate at the sum of $14016 59

That the above named defendant, E. E. Quick of Columbia County, Oregon, was duly appointed administrator of the estate of the said Patrick Hughes, deceased, and duly qualified as such administrator on or about the 9th day of July, 1908, and letters of administration were duly issued to him by order of the County Court, of said Columbia County, Oregon, on said date, and thereupon he proceeded to take poesession of said personal property of said estate and to administer thereon in pursuance of the authority vested in him by law and said letters of administration; that said administrator has paid all lawful claims and demands of every kind and nature whatsoever existing against said estate, including the costs and expenses of administration, and has fully administered said estate and rendered his final account to the said County Court, which final account showed that he had converted into cash all of said personal property which was not money, and that there remains a residue in his hands after paying all claims against said estate, of $10036.32 and no other property of any kind whatsoever; and thereupon the said County Court, of Columbia County, Oregon, made a final order approving said final report of said administrator and closing said estate, and directing that the administrator hold said cash until disposition thereof should be made by a competent court, and that said administrator still has in his possession the said sum of $10036.32, which constitutes all of the property remaining and belonging to the said estate of Patrick Hughes, deceased.

That said administrator has made due inquiry for heirs of said Pairick Hughes, deceased, or other persons having any claim upon said estate, as heirs or otherwise; and no person or persons have been found who are or claim to be heirs of said decedent, and plaintiff alleges there are none, and that all of said sum has escheated to the State of Oregon.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, in the name of the State of Oregon, that all persons interested in the estate of Patrick Hughes, deceased, be and they are hereby required to appear and show cause in this court, if any they have, on or before the 29th day of April, 1912, why the title of, in and to, the said personal property, should not be adjudged vested in the State of Oregon.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That a copy hereof be published in the Oregon Mist, a newspaper published in said County of Columbia, for six successive weeks.

Dated the 11th day of March, 1912.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mrs. Hannah Partridge arrived from Seattle yesterday and will spend several weeks visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Ross in St. Helens. She was accompanied here by another daughter, Mrs. Marks and children, from Beloit, Wisconsin who will also visit here several weeks.

Just a few short weeks ago the city Council advertised for bids for the improvement of Hemlock Street by grading and filling a distance of about 4 blocks. There was only one bid received which was $4150. This was promptly rejected by the Council and the work was ordered done by the day and Road Supervisor Dspain placed in charge. He put his crew to work and the job is now complete just as the specifications and survey called for. The total cost of the work done by Dspain was just $1234.15, a difference of only $2915.85 less than the bid.

Fred Watkins has made arrangements whereby he will receive each day a full report of the ball games played by both the American and National League clubs as well as the Pacific Coast clubs. This will be received by telegraph each day and be posted on his bulletin board, which will, no doubt, be appreciated by the many fans in St. Helens.

The Barkentine Aurora arrived Sunday night at the St. Helens Shipbuilding Company's yard to undergo repairs, mention of which was made in our last issue. She will be here for at least one month as her repairs are quite extensive.

The Steamer CASCO left Tuesday with a full cargo destined for San Francisco. The YELLOWSTONE of the McCormick fleet is the next arrival due.
