CONDITIONS IN COLORADO TODAY

It, while the women of Colorado have the responsibility I must do my part toward trying to make matters better. But I frankly say I do not see how this can be accomplished. It certainly has not yielded any such result up to this date. We have no cleaner politics, no purer politicians, no less graft, no better laws for women and children than Massachusetts has, and in spite of the often repeated assertions of the Suffragists, not one of the laws we have is the result of the votes of women. As far as this goes the influence of women outside the Suffrage is better than with the exercise of it. I have found the professional Suffragist or politician hard, aggressive, loud in voice and manner and ready to antagonize anyone to carry her point. It is not with her an "appeal to reason" but and appeal to sentiment, to passion, and to fancied wrong done to women. There is very little now to say on the subject excepting that my observations has only intensified my feeling on the subject. The better class of women do not want to vote. It is hard for me to induce them to come to the polls, when any stirring question comes up, and on ordinary matters they neither feel nor even pretend to feel any interest.

Judging from the conditions as they now stand in Colorado, do we honestly feel that the women's vote will better our State of Oregon? Oregon Association Opposed to the Extension of the Suffrage to Women. Mrs. Francis James Bailey, Pres. (Pd. Adv.)

Majority Rule Amendment

The remedy suggested at the present moment by some of the most prominent newspapers of the state is, "Vote 'No' on all measures unless you are sure." Not having studied the merits of the 38 measures, how can the voter be sure? If he votes "No" on all or most of all the measures and all turned down, how about the one, two or perhaps three or four meritorious measures for which there is a genuine need or demand by the people? Are they to meet the same fate as the dozen of ordinary measures which should have gone to the Legislature in the first place, or the vicious, or fanatic measures which should be turned down with a vengeance?

If we are to preserve the initiative law for the people of Oregon, both present and future, we must protect it by surrounding it with a safeguard which will prevent its misuse and abuse by those who would use it to further selfish interests to the detriment of the greater number of the people of the state.

The Majority Rule amendment will do this by driving all ordinary measures of legislation into the Legislature where they belong, and by driving the selfish and pernicious measures into oblivion where they, also, belong.

The Majority Rule amendment, if passed, will reduce the number of measures on the ballot to a sane basis by giving notice to all that a measure in order to stand a chance of passing must have real merit and that there must be an actual demand for the same, in which case there will be no difficulty at all in getting a majority to vote in favor of it.

Take the time and pains to look into the Majority Rule amendment and if you do, you will vote for it and preserve the initiative law for the people of Oregon. Vote 322 X Yes 323 No Majority Rule League. (Pd. Adv.)
