Louise Weinhard, Anna Wessinger, Paul Wessinger, and Henry Wagner, executors and executors respectively of the Last Will and Testament of Henry Weinhard, deceased, Plaintiffs.

vs. R. E. Thomas and Jane Doe Thomas, his wife, Defendants.

In the name of the state of Oregon: You, R. E. Thomas and Jane Doe Thomas, his wife, are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you hereon or before Tuesday, January 7, 1913 that day being more than six weeks from the first publication of the summons herein, and if you fail to appear and answer herein the plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the judgment prayed for in the complaint herein, to-wit: that said complaint referce be hereby made, and the prayer of which said complaint is particularly as follows:

"Wherefore, the above named plaintiffs pray for decree foreclosing the mortgage given by R. E. Thomas to Henry Weinhard, now deceased, said mortgage bearing date of the 20th day of November, 1909, and given to secure the payment of three hundred and fifty dollars ($350.00), with interest and such other expenditures as might be made by these plaintiffs to protect said mortgage interest, which said mortgage covers and describes lot numbered three in block numbered five in the town of Scappoose, Columbia County, State of Oregon, as the same is laid down upon the official map of said town now on file and on record in the office of the County Clerk of said county and state, and that there be decreed to be due to the plaintiffs on account of said mortgage and note the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars ($350.00), with interest thereon from the 20th day of November, 1903, at the rate of six per cent per annum; and the further sum of ten dollars and seventy cents ($10.70), to-wit: taxes and penalty paid by these plaintiffs on the above described property for the year 1904, together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 10th day of March, 1906; and the further sum of six dollars and thirty cents, taxes and penalty paid by these plaintiffs on the above described property for the year 1907, together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 29th day of October, 1908; and the further sum of five dollars and thirty cents ($5.30), taxes paid by these plaintiffs on the above described property for the year 1908, together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 16th day of November, 1907; and the further sum of seven dollars and sixty-five cents ($7.65), taxes paid by these plaintiffs on the above described property for the year 1909, together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 27th day of October, 1909; and the further sum of seven dollars and ninety-eight cents (7.98), taxes paid by these plaintiffs on the above described property for the year 1910, together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 25th day of May, 1911; and the further sum of seven dollars and forty-two cents ($7.42), taxes paid by these plaintiffs on the above described property for the year 1911, together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the first day of April, 1912; and the further sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00), attorneys' fees for the foreclosure of this mortgage and for their costs and disbursements herein. And that said mortgage given by R. E. Thomas to Henry Weinhard, now deceased, and dated the 20th day of November, 1903, on the property above described be decreed to be a first and prior lien and claim upon said premises and prior and superior to the lien and claim of all other persons, and that said mortgage given by R. E. Thomas to Henry Weinhard, now deceased, and dated November 20, 1903, and covering and describing lot numbered three in block numbered five in the town of Scappoose, Columbia county, state of Oregon, as the same is laid down upon the official map of said town now on file and on record in the office of the County Clerk of said county and state, be foreclosed and the premises covered thereby and described therein be sold by the sheriff in the manner provided by law, and that the plaintiffs be permitted to purchase said premises upon execution sale by the sheriff and the proceeds of said sale be applied as follows: First, to the payment of the costs and expenses of suit and sale; second, to the payment of the amounts decreed to be due to these plaintiffs under and by the terms of said mortgage in said complaint described and set out, the same being given by R. E. Thomas to Henry Weinhard, now deceased, and bearing date of November 20, 1903; third, that any balance remaining thereafter be paid into court and distributed among the parties who may establish their claim and right thereto. And further these plaintiffs pray that R. E. Thomas and Jane Doe Thomas, his wife, and each of them, be barred and foreclosed of all right, title, interest, claim, and demand in, or upon said mortgaged property and every part thereof save and except only the statutory right of redemption and for such further and other relief as is meet and proper in the premises."

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Oregon Mist, a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of St. Helens, County of Columbia, State of Oregon, and by order of the Honorable J. U. Campbell, Judge of the above entitled Court, which order is dated the 15th day of November, 1912, and prescribes that such publication shall be so made and published not less than once a week for six weeks.

The date of the first publication of this summons is Friday, the 22d day of November, 1912, and the date of the last publication is Friday, the 31 day of January, 1913.
