WINTER LINGERS IN THE LAP OF SPRING

Monday, January 13, 1913, in defiance of the hoodoo of numbers, we announce our

Second Annual Clearance Sale

The sale put on by us last year enabled everyone to get something at a bargain. Although our supply is not as great this year, the bargains are even better. In order to make room for spring goods already bought in the East we will give you the chance to buy such staple lines as Walk-Over and John Strootman shoes, Armor Plate hosiery, Standard shirts and Medlecott underwear at great reductions. With the mills and camps all working and the general healthy financial condition of the country, a good year's business is assured and we have bought accordingly and MUST MAKE ROOM for new goods.
