HOULTON, COLUMBIA COUNTY, OREGON

A PAGE OF NEWS NOTES FROM OUR NEIGHBORING CITY

A very interesting event will be the celebration of Robert Burns' birthday anniversary, which will be observed in true old-country style by the residents of Houlton and St. Helens who are proud to claim Scotland as their birth place. This will occur on the evening of Saturday, Jan. 25, at Bishop's Hall in Houlton. A program has been prepared, after which there will be dancing. The music will be rendered by a Scotch orchestra, and those who wish may take part in the Folk dances. Refreshments will be served and everyone is assured of a pleasant evening.

It is generally understood that the old cooperage camp will be re-opened shortly and ready for operation. This enterprise will furnish employment for 40 or 50 men. Messrs. Belford and Eastman were in Houlton arranging matters preparatory to the opening.

Misses Nelle and Leona Perkins were hostesses at an informal luncheon on Saturday evening preceding the dance at the City hall, the occasion being the birthday of H. F. McCormick. Among the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Zipperer, Mr. and Mrs. Rotger, Miss Amy George and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson White, of Houlton.

This protracted snow fall is being heralded by the farmers and loggers of the west as a most beneficial and timely occurence. It not only insures good crops for the coming year's harvest, but will be a great thing for irrigation, as well as for domestic purposes. Coming at this particular season it in no wise damages the fruit trees or berries. The livestock has not suffered from the cold. Taking it all around it is very valuable storm, causing slight inconvenience.

The Ladies Society of the Rainier Congregational church entertained at a Silver Tea last Wednesday afternoon. Among the guests from St. Helens were Mesdames Johns, Dillard, Jones, Lamont and Grant who took the 2 o'clock train at Houlton.

Mrs. Thompson White and daughter Helen went to Portland Saturday.

John Jones of St. Helens firmly believes in keeping things moving. He broke out with the small pox and upon being quarantined promptly broke out of the pest house. Howsver, when he was captured and returned to said place, he showed symptoms of having had his spirit broken. St. Helens pest house being small, the Houlton small pox patient was removed to a vacant house fitted up for the occasion and a capable nurse installed. Everything is being done to prevent the spread of this disease, although it is in a very mild form and there is nd need for alarm.

Great interest is being manifested in the revival meetings at the Free Methodist church. The Monday evening service lasted until 4 o'clock Tuesday morning and resulted in one conversion. The paster, Rev. Nichols, is being assisted by Evangelsst M. L. Schooley of Washington, Miss Ethel Wells and Mrs. L. B. Belcher of Portland. Services every afternoon except Monday, Saturday and Sunday. Sunday school at the regular hour and preaching at 11 o'clock.

An old landmark, the shed that stood for 40 years in the corner of John Lamberson's yard, collapsed last Tuesday, under its weight of snow.

John Doe, who was arrested for disturbing the peace, contributed his mite, $12.50 to the city's exchequer last Monday.

Mrs. Newbold and daughter, Miss Helena, spent Saturday in Portland, shopping.

Robt. Seal of Columbia City was in town Friday.

Among those who attended the dance in St. Helens Saturday night were: Misses Reid, Newbold and Fake, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson White, Danny Reid, Archie Newbold and Pane Fake.

A number of Houlton people were sleighing Sunday. The farmers from the mountains are using bob-sleds and things have the real look of winter.

Pane Fake of Astoria is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Fake.

Chas. White of the firm of White & White, went to Portland Saturday, returning Wednesday.

Jarvis Chambers and family are now living at the Cats' house in Houlton.

Powell & Harris have moved their fixtures from the building they formerly occupied and will go to Rainier to open a meat market. At present no one has taken their place.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Prescott entertained a few of their friends at whist Saturday evening.

The regular Wednesday night dancing party was well attended last week.

Mrs. Gill and sister, Mrs. Nelson, were in from Deer Island Thursday.

Otto Luman has taken the restrauant formerly run by Barney Kelley and will conduct a first-class short order house.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Masten were in from the camp Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Brookman and Mrs. Failing of McBride were shopping in Houlton last Thursday.

J. H. Urie and family have removed to Clifton, Wash., where he is foreman of a large ranch.

A. Pinckney of Carico was in town Tuesday buying supplies.

Wm. Belford and Mr. Eastman of Aberdeen, Wash., were in town this week.

Mrs. Philip Porter of Portland returned to her home Tuesday, after a short visit with relatives in Houlton.

R. L. Seal and two sons were up from Columbia City Tuesday, the guests of U. W. Clark's family.

Mrs. John Lamberson is seriously ill at her home.

E. O Stewart was transacting business in Houlton Wednesday.

Mrs. Hendricks visited in the country at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Holstine, last Wednesday.

Perry Usher moved his family into Houlton from his farm and is occupying one of the Newton Perry cottages.

Oliver Smith was in town Tuesday from his farm beyond Yankton.

Floyd White went to the dance in Scappoose Saturday night.

The Trenholm mail carrier has abandoned his wagon on account of the heavy snow fall and is making his daily trip on horseback.

School Items

Prof. R. L. Black is principal of the school, having succeeded E. S. Faxon, who resigned at Chrismas time.

The pupils of the intermediate department are doing excellent work under the efficient management of Miss Belle F. Conlogue.

We regret that Bonnie Gensman has been absent for the past month, due to a severe attack of rheumatism.

Frank Crouse, Rhoda Casterline and Helen Chambers have been promoted to the inteamediate room.

Robt. McQueen has been absent only one-half day this term.

County Supt. Wilkerson was a visitor at our school recently.

At present Miss Masten's room, the primary department, has 33 enrolled, and some are not at school who attended before the holidays. Friday afternoons are devoted to drawing and painting and at present the little tots are learning to sing "America."

The bad weather has caused but slight falling off in school attendance.

Clarence Masten, school director, visited the school this week.

Mrs. Ketel was a welcome visitor on Tuesday.

Thomas Hannigan, a relative of Miss Conlogue, was a visitor in the intermediate room Thursday afternoon.

Jack Prescott sprained his back doing athletic stunts.

The eighth grade has begun the study of Civics.
