SCOTS CELEBRATE

BIRTHDAY OF ROBERT BURNS CAUSES GATHERING OF CLANS

On Saturday evening, January 25, a number of St. Helens and Houlton people came in response to invitations announcing the celebration of the birthday of Scotland's beloved poet, Robert Burns. A very unique and interesting program had been rehearsed, but on account of the absence of some of the participants it was much shorter than planned. Mrs. Armstead, mother of Mrs. Arthur Adams, who has but recently come fron England, sang two beautiful Scotch songs: "Robin Adair" and "Lullaby." Miss Jean Reid did a Highland Fling very artistically. A song "My Kitty" by three little ladies, Edith and Charlrtte Prescott and Babes McQueen was a great hit. Helen White also sang two songs. At the close of the program a dainty luncheon was served and the remainder of ths evening was spent in dancing.
