OBITUARIES

Betty June Haggard

June 9, 1928 — March 10, 2016

Betty Haggard, 87, died March 10, 2016, at her home in Salem. Betty was born in Oshkosh, Nebraska, on June 9, 1928. After her parents moved their family from Nebraska to Oregon, Betty settled in Silverton, where she graduated from Silverton Union High School, married, raised her sons and lived most of her life.

Betty Haggard loved life and cherished her family and friends. She lived her life as an independent, strong, loving and caring person. Betty met the love of her life, Robert “Bob” Haggard, in Silverton, where they married and had three sons together, before Bob passed far too soon.

In Silverton, Betty was active with junior and senior women’s circles and the Methodist Church. She loved the sense of community, supporting others in times of sorrow and celebrating with them in times of joy. Bridge nights with the “bridge ladies” were precious to her. Betty loved to play golf, watch baseball games, was a member of the Chemeketans Hiking Club, and enjoyed daily walks in her neighborhood, rain or shine. Professionally, she worked as a bookkeeper and accountant, beginning with the logging company that she and Bob ran until his passing. Betty continued her work as a bookkeeper and accountant for insurance brokers, car dealers and an onion farmer.

After she retired and moved to Salem, she was Treasurer for Friends of the Salem Public Library, and was an active member of the Salem United Methodist Church. Betty was surrounded by her family and friends during her final days, and died at peace early in the morning on March 10, 2016. Betty was loved very much and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Betty is survived by sons James, Jack and Jay Haggard; grandchildren Alexa, Nichole and Robert; and great-grandchildren Raelyn and Alexander.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband Robert Haggard; stepdaughter Roberta Haggard; parents James and Johanna Cunningham; brother Mathew “Mick” Cunningham; and sister Alice Roshek.

Betty requested that no funeral or memorial service be held. In lieu of a memorial service or flowers, the Haggard family asks that you please consider contributing to the Betty Haggard Tribute page with the Michael J. Fox foundation dedicated to eliminating Parkinson’s disease in our lifetime.

The Betty Haggard Tribute page can be found at www.MichaelJFox.org/tribute/tribute-page.php?id=19329

Ethel Selina Rose

Jan. 21, 1916 — March 17, 2016

Ethel Selina Rose passed into eternity on March 17, 2016, at the age of 100. Her family rejoices that she is now with her Savior Jesus Christ.

Ethel was born Jan. 21, 1916, to Lewis Tobias Simonson and Lene Oltina (Gabrielson) Simonson.

She grew up in McGrath, Minnesota, along with her nine brothers and three sisters, all of whom are deceased.

She married her childhood sweetheart, Merton Clayton Rose, on Aug. 22, 1936, to whom she was married 62 years before Merton’s death on April 5, 1999. After their marriage in Minnesota, they immediately left for California, where they resided for several years before returning to Minnesota to try their hand at farming. In 1947, they again returned to California, where Merton worked in the construction trade and Ethel was a full time homemaker raising their six children. In 1977, Ethel and Merton moved to Silverton for their retirement years. After her husband’s death, Ethel returned to California, where she lived for 13 years prior to moving back to Silverton in 2014.

Ethel is survived by her six children: Joan Carol Rose of Aurora, Colorado, Judy Grubaugh of Fullerton, California, Donna Moberg of Hibbing, Minnesota, Charles L. Rose of Silverton, Susan Campbell of Athens, Ohio, and Lewis C. Rose of Anaheim, California; 16 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren and one great-great-granddaughter.

A celebration of Ethel’s life was held in Silverton, on her 100th birthday in January of this year. 50 of her closest family members were present.

We Are Here to Help Answer All Your Questions!

Who do I call first?

When a death is unexpected and a person is not on hospice, nor in a licensed care facility, your first phone call may be to the funeral home. However, the police must be notified first. Often the funeral home will call and notify the police for you.

Once police are notified, they will come to the place of death and assess things. They will also contact EMT to come and certify the time and that a death has occurred. Afterward, the police may phone the nearest funeral home to assist in transportation of the individual. In certain cases, the medical examiner’s deputy may also be requested at the scene to determine if an autopsy may be required. In other cases, an autopsy may not be necessary. If family wishes to pursue an autopsy, they should notify the funeral director.

Is embalming required?

No. Only in certain circumstances. Embalming is required in cases of communicable disease or prolonged public viewing (6 hours or longer). Most often times the funeral home will utilize mortuary refrigeration, as required after the first 24 hours of death.
