

OBITUARIES

Caroline Ann Berg

July 14, 1940 — March 23, 2016

Caroline Ann Berg, 75, died in Salem, Oregon, after a 15 year battle with Alzheimer's disease.

Caroline was born in Silverton to Swen and Anna Sorensen of Scotts Mills. She was raised as an only child until the age of 12 when her sister Susan was born. She attended Scotts Mills grade school and graduated from Silverton High School in 1958.

After high school, Caroline moved to Portland, and worked as a nurse's aide at Shriners Hospital for Children for 2 years. She then worked at Manning's Restaurant in the Lloyd Center for 3 years as a broiler cook. While working there she met Jimmy Hubbard. They married in 1963. They adopted infant Amy in 1965. Caroline also adopted Jim's nephew, Lonnie, 9, whom he was raising. The marriage ended in divorce in 1969 after which she made contact with an old Mt. Angel boyfriend, Larry Berg. She and Larry married in 1970. Caroline and Amy moved to live with Larry in Mt. Angel. Lonnie remained in Portland with his dad. Son Casey was born later that year followed by another son, Chris, in 1973. Caroline was a homemaker while Larry worked in his family's house moving business. When the kids were small, she took in other children to baby-sit. After the kids started school, Caroline cooked part time at the Angel's Table Restaurant and then at Evergreen Golf Course to help feed the lunch crowd.

She was a huge movie fan when she was a kid. Caroline liked to watch old movies from the 40s and 50s. Her favorite movie was the Wizard of Oz; and of course her favorite singer was Judy Garland.

Caroline liked to cook but she would rather be shopping, always looking for that "bargain." Her shopping also created a rather large collection of cookie jars, wicker baskets, teddy bears, and of course shoes and purses.

In 1981, Caroline decided to try catering a wedding and it was successful. She catered functions large and small for the next 20 years, hiring friends and family members to assist as needed. She had a popular business with many repeat customers. She was forced to quit the business in 2002, which she loved and had said she wanted to do until she was 75. Her potato salad was legendary.

Everyone is unique, but Caroline was more unique than most. She made friends easily and would start a conversation with complete strangers on a regular basis. Her main goal in life was to just have fun. Remember her 50th birthday?

People knew her to be outgoing, outspoken, outrageous, and also enjoyed embarrassing people by her antics but still had class when it was appropriate.

The family lived in Mt. Angel until 1996 when Caroline and Larry moved 2 miles east to the farm where Larry grew up. In 2006, because of advancing dementia, Caroline moved to The Woods at Willow Creek in Salem.

Caroline is survived by husband, Larry, daughter, Amy (Tim) Sullivan, sons, Casey and Chris Berg, son, Lonnie Hubbard; grandchildren, Holly and Sean Sullivan, and Kacey Berg, sister, Susan Cook. No public services are planned.

There will be a birthday celebration at noon on July 10th at the Scotts Mills City Park on First Street. Hot dogs and hamburgers will be provided. Bring memories and food to share if you would like. Everyone is welcomed.

Caroline loved animals and donated to the Humane Society. In Caroline's memory, please help the Humane Society and Alzheimer's research in any way you can.

The family would like to give special thanks to the staff at "The Woods" for the outstanding care that Caroline received for the last 9 1/2 years.

Lucille Virginia Anderson

SPECIAL TO THE STAYTON MAIL

Garden volunteers recognized

With a spin of the wheel, a cut of the cards and a roll of the dice, The Oregon Garden presented its 2015 Volunteer Awards on April 2 in a ceremony to people who have dedicated themselves to assisting with the garden.

Volunteers gathered in The Oregon Garden's Grand Hall for a Casino Royale themed evening.

Volunteers contributed 16,011 hours to The Oregon Garden in 2015 — a 31 percent increase over 2014 — in a variety of departments, including horticulture, visitor services, education, events and administration. The Oregon Garden acknowledged 14 specific volunteers whom it was felt went above and beyond in their service, with the Volunteer of the Year award going to Gary and Susan Hunt of Woodburn.

Silverton recipients included Steven Kuhn (Rookie of the Year), Richard Meganck (Veteran of the Year), Gordon Knutson (Events Volunteer of the Year), Stephanie deMoll (Greenhouse Volunteer of the Year), Kathy Fleury (Guest Services, Information Booth), and Gary Schmidt/Les Schwab (Rediscovery Volunteer of the Year).

From Mt. Angel, Rebecca Pirkel (Oregon Garden Foundation Board Award) and Tom Maurer (Events Volunteer of the Year) also received recognition as did Stayton's Judi Maulding (Membership Volunteer of the Year).

Ten Special Recognitions were also given to volunteers, primarily from Salem, in additional categories.

"The Oregon Garden is so fortunate to have a fleet of volunteers willing to assist with all of its operations," Chris Crabb of Oregon Garden Media Relations said. "We literally couldn't run this world-class garden without the enthusiasm and knowledge of our volunteers; they help shape it and share it with all who come to enjoy its splendor."

We Are Here to Help Answer All Your Questions!

Who do I call first?

When a death is unexpected and a person is not on hospice, nor in a licensed care facility, your first phone call may be to the funeral home. However, the police must be notified first. Often the funeral home will call and notify the police for you.

Once police are notified, they will come to the place of death and assess things. They will also contact EMT to come and certify the time and that a death has occurred. Afterward, the police may phone the nearest funeral home to assist in transportation of the individual. In certain cases, the medical examiner's deputy may also be requested at the scene to determine if an autopsy may be required. In other cases, an autopsy may not be necessary. If family wishes to pursue an autopsy, they should notify the funeral director.

Is embalming required?

No. Only in certain circumstances. Embalming is required in cases of communicable disease or prolonged public viewing (6 hours or longer). Most often times the funeral home will utilize mortuary refrigeration, as required after the first 24 hours of death.
