Stayton police find stolen car, arrest 2

WHITNEY M WOODWORTH STATESMAN JOURNAL

Stayton police arrested two people Thursday evening after they ran from a stolen vehicle, officials said. Jasper McDaniel, 29, of Turner, was arrested on charges of unauthorized use of a vehicle, criminal trespass and a parole violation. Gabrielle Osuna, 24, of Stayton, was arrested on charges of unauthorized use of vehicle, criminal trespass and a probation violation. Osuna was convicted of car theft in Marion County in 2013.

An officer spotted the pair at 7:30 p.m. near Ida Street and First Avenue driving a red Honda Civic that had been reported as stolen. As the officer

Jasper McDaniel

Gabrielle Osuna neared the car, it made a quick turn onto Cherry Avenue. and McDaniel Osuna ditched the vehicle and ran through residential yards toward Ida Street. Police found them one street to the east.

A witness saw them run and identified McDaniel and Osuna as the suspects. Both were taken to Marion County jail.

Wineries

talanacellars.com. Piluso Vineyard and Winery: Located in the back of a charming farmhouse, enjoy the vineyard and country setting of this winery in Aumsville. Hits include the 2015 Gruner Veltliner, 2012 Pinot Noir Blanc, 2012 Gamay Noir and the 2012 Pinot Noir. Open 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday-Monday, $10 tasting fee, summer white wine sale, enjoy new releases and tasty bites, 6654 Shaw Highway SE, Aumsville, 503-749-4125, pilusowi nes.com.

Pudding River Wine Cellars: The beauti-✓ fully decorated tasting room on the ground floor of an old barn is warm and inviting, and you can look out the French doors at the vineand farmhouse. More than 10 years ago, I visited Pudding River when the tasting room was on the second floor of the barn. I fell in love with their chardonnay at the time. I still think it's one of the best in the Willamette Valley. Don't miss the 2013 Chardonnay, the 2012 Syrah made from grapes from Walla Walla and the 2013 Malbec, a big, muscular and bold red that's terrific. Open 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday-Monday, $10 tasting fee, wines paired with d'oeuvres, music and sale, 9374 Sunnyview Road NE, Salem, 503-365-0391, puddingriver.com.

Alexeli Vineyard and Winery: This artisan winery may be small, but it makes some of the best wines I've tasted this year. Don't be turned off by the fact that the tasting room is in an addition to a vineyard house; looks can be deceiving. Many of the Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Riesling, Gewürztraminer, Muller-Thurgau and Syrah vines are on original roots, and many are struggling, but it's the struggle that's producing great grapes. Open noon to 5 p.m. Friday-Monday, $7 tasting fee, 35803 S Highway 213, Oregon City, 503-829-6677, alexel-

"We are excited to be the first brewing industry raw materials supplier to join fellow craft beer leaders in the pursuit of this very important global movement," said Blake Crosby, CEO and President, Crosby Hop Farm. "The B Corp impact assessment provides a great framework for planning and continuous improvement across all aspects of our business. Just as it takes many quality ingredients to make a good beer, brewers now have the ability to select hops sourced from a Certified Corporation." The Certification is a natural extension of the Crosby Hop Farm company culture, said Sorensen. Crosby Hop Farm has many conscientious practices, including its zero waste initiative, biodiversity enhancement and native habitat restoration initiatives, solar project, setting reduction targets for operations and office energy consumption, and providing a generous benefits package for employees including ride school involvement. 'It's our responsibility to look beyond just financial performance and commit to the triple bottom line — people, planet and profit," said Staci Wallace, Crosby Hop Farm Quality and Sustainability Manager. "Drawing from the inspiration and support of the B Corp community, we have a tremendous opportunity to continuously improve our impact on the communities Crosby Hop Farm serves and the land that

We Are Here to Help Answer All Your Questions!

Who do I call first?

When a death is unexpected and a person is not on hospice, nor in a licensed care facility, your first phone call may be to the funeral home. However, the police must be notified first. Often the funeral home will call and notify the police for you.

Once police are notified, they will come to the place of death and assess things. They will also contact EMT to come and certify the time and that a death has occurred. Afterward, the police may phone the nearest funeral home to assist in transportation of the individual. In certain cases, the medical examiner's deputy may also be requested at the scene to determine if an autopsy may be required. In other cases, an autopsy may not be necessary. If family wishes to pursue an autopsy, they should notify the funeral

No. Only in certain circumstances. Embalming is required in cases of communicable disease or prolonged public viewing (6 hours or longer). Most often times the funeral home will utilize mortuary refridgeration, as required after the first 24 hours of death.
