The young musicians who performed in Portland also were part of Silverton's wind ensemble, which claimed sixth place at state last month. They played "Noah," "Black Horse Troop" and "Every Winter's Breath" at the OSAA festival held at Oregon State University in Corvallis.

Everybody loves a parade.

In addition to the sweet treat, there will be live music. Bring a blanket to grab a seat in the grass or park yourself at one of the picnic tables. From noon to 1:45 p.m., The SycoBilly's will perform, followed by the Oregon Valley Boys from 2:15 to 6 p.m.

Additionally, The Wooden Nickel will serve its award-winning barbecue for a fee.

A Father's Day tradition, the festival takes place 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday at Coolidge-McClaine Park, 303 Coolidge St., Silverton.
