ANNA REED / STATESMAN JOURNAL

The libraries in the Chemeketa Cooperative Regional Library Service will expand services to rural readers. Starting Friday, those with a free basic card can borrow 10 items at a time.

Libraries set to increase rural services

TOM MAYHALL RASTRELLI
APPEAL TRIBUNE

Rural readers are in for a treat. On Friday, the libraries in the Chemeketa Cooperative Regional Library Service will increase the maximum number of items persons with a free basic library card can borrow at the same time from one to 10. The number of items readers can put on hold also will increase to 10.

John Goodyear, the cooperative's executive director, said the previous policy of borrowing one book at a time was "pretty restrictive."

"It's going to be a big deal because people didn't want to bother or didn't know about the one-item card," Goodyear said.

The change affects residents of Marion, Polk and Yamhill counties who live in the cooperative's district but outside one of the 17 libraries' districts. The idea to expand basic services came from the staff of the McMinnville Public Library. The cooperative's libraries unanimously agreed.

"The ultimate goal is to promote literacy," Goodyear said. "The libraries thought they could do more by letting more items at a time go out."

Rural residents pay a tax that supports the cooperative but don't pay city taxes that fund specific libraries. Because of the tax disparity, rural residents wishing to access full services of borrowing up to 50 items at a time rather than one have been paying $60 per year per household. They will now have the free option of 10 items at a time per household. Children with CARE cards will still be able to borrow 25 items at a time. Those with full-service cards that expire this month will be given an extension until July 1.

For more information, contact the library closest to your residence.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Holy Family Academy would like to thank the Mt. Angel Oktoberfest Foundation for their generous donation to our school. The Oktoberfest is one of our largest fundraisers and patrons have enjoyed our wonderful curly fries for many years.

But our old deep fat fryer is in continual need of maintenance and repair.

Thank you for helping us move forward with the purchase of a new one.

We strive to keep our tuition low, and this grant helps us do that. Thank you for your generosity to us and so many other local organizations.

—Susan Bielenberg, Past-President, Scotts Mills

What's going on with the Silverton post office grounds?

Huge weeds grow anywhere they can, leaves are not picked up from one season to the next and the "lawn" is a patch of dandelions with flowers over a foot tall.

I've been told by an employee that the postmaster sees it but doesn't care. Welcome to Oregon's Garden City.

—Patricia Fowler, Silverton
