

OBITUARIES

Howard William Hatteberg

March 8, 1930—Aug. 3, 2016
Howard William Hatteberg was born in Long Island, New York, to Leonard and Florence Hatteberg. The Hatteberg family moved to Silverton in 1945 when Howard was 15 years old. He attended Silverton schools. Howard joined the Army in January 1951, serving mostly in Germany during the Occupation.

He married Mary Ann Brennamen on May 16, 1951, in Silverton. He worked as a mechanic for Anderson Motors and Perry Morrell Motors in Silverton. He became self-employed and had his own mechanic business at the Hatteberg Chevron Station in Silverton. He retired in 1995 and sold his business at the age of 66. He married Lucille Knutson-Emrick on Dec. 23, 2003.

He is preceded in death by his parents, his sister Katherine, his brother Leonard and first wife, Mary Ann.

He leaves behind his current wife Lucille Knutson; daughters Kathy (Ted) Pallister of Silverton, Sharon Hatteberg of Silverton and Karen Lawrentz of Independence; stepsons Tim (Diane) Knutson from Tucson, Arizona, and Ben (Noemi) Knutson of Silverton; stepdaughter Connie Costello of Portland; three grandchildren: Eric Brown, Stacey (Shawn) Penrose and Jason Pallister; and three great-grandchildren: Libby Penrose, Ivan Penrose, and Lainey Penrose of Kansas.

A memorial service was held Monday, Aug. 8, 2016, at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Silverton. Interment will take place at Valley View Lutheran Cemetery in Silverton.

Arrangements by Unger Funeral Chapel, Silverton.

Eunice J. Maulding Kleeb

Dec. 5, 1914—July 7, 2016
Eunice J. Maulding Kleeb passed away July 7, 2016 in Tacoma, Washington, at the age of 101. Eunice was born Dec. 5, 1914 in Silverton to John H. and Sarah Baller Maulding. She grew up on her parents' farm in the Silverton hills country, which she loved all her life. She often reminisced how sorry she was that she did not try to buy the old farm property.

Eunice married her love, John M. Kleeb, in 1938, and they had 62 happy years together until he passed away in 2000.

She is survived by her two younger sisters, Marjory Maulding Coughanour and Patricia Maulding Aeder (Robert); by her loving daughter, Camilla Kleeb Foreman; grandsons Erik Foreman (Tomah) and Bret Foreman; great grandson Ryan Foreman; and by many Baller and Maulding cousins.

Eunice graduated from Oregon Normal School (now Western Oregon University) and taught at Davis School (Silverton), Noble School (Scotts Mills) and Mollala Elementary, as well as substituting in Portland and Milwaukie. Eunice and John lived in Portland, San Carlos, California, Spokane, Washington, Bainbridge Island, Washington and Wailea, Maui, Hawaii, during John's long tenure as an examiner and Vice President of the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco, and as President of the Federal Home Loan Banks of Spokane and Seattle.

Eunice was an excellent, caring homemaker and a cherished asset and advisor to her husband. Her interests were many and varied: the Portland Civic Theatre, gardening and flower arranging, antiques, golf, birding, cooking, and family history. She was a sweet, gentle woman, hard working and tough; the kindest, most loving mother in the world. John and Eunice loved their vacation home in Maui, and their ashes will be laid to rest in the ocean there.

Edward Vaughn Havel

Feb. 11, 1964—July 29, 2016
Edward Vaughn Havel died unexpectedly on July 29, 2016, at Silverton Hospital from complications involving an undetected clot.

Ed served in the Navy during Desert Storm for four years and was honorably discharged in the year 2000. His Navy career was spent on two cruises on the USS Kitty Hawk. He was also a brown shirt level plane captain for an F-14 Tomcat.

He settled in Scotts Mills and became an integral part of the community. He was an active member of the Scotts Mills Friends Community Church for approximately 20 years.

By far one of the greatest positive impacts of Ed's life was his influence on the young people he mentored over time. They thought of Ed's house as a refuge where they could go to vent, get some calming care, hang out, play and have a hot meal. Ed provided a sense of safety and loved to have fun with his young friends.

Ed is survived by his mother Velma Harper; father Nelson Havel; stepmother Lorita; brothers David (Happy) and Ray Havel; and God-given sister Suzy Byers. He was uncle Ed to Kristi (Matt) Horton, Mandy (Justin) Jenkins, Tom Havel, Lane (Kate) Havel, Leigh Ann (Sam) Muentes, Stephanie and Jonathan Havel. He also was great-uncle to Faith, Wesley, Lucy, Seamus and Charlotte.

A celebration of life service was held Aug. 7 at the Scotts Mills Friends Community Church. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Scotts Mills Friends Church at P.O. Box 56, Scotts Mills OR 97375.

Retta Marie (Jones) Larsen

March 8, 1934—Aug. 1, 2016
Retta Marie (Jones) Larsen, 82, died peacefully

the morning of Aug. 1, 2016.

Retta was born March 8, 1934, in Watonga, Oklahoma, the oldest daughter of Ewin Frances Jones and Bessie Vi Retta Hiner.

Together with the love of her life and best friend, she lived in Molalla for 26 years, Prineville for six years — where they owned Carolina Motel — and then Silverton for 11 years. Retta always said her biggest credit in life was her family and friends that become part of that family.

She is preceded in death by her two brothers: Bud and Charlie. Retta is survived by her husband of 64 years, George A. Larsen; children Georgia (Dean) Osborn, Linda (Doug) Arrant, Joe (Melissa) Larsen, Brenda (Clint) Gorbett, Gordon (Ruth) Larsen, and Donna (Terri) Newton; siblings Don, Lee, Mary, Cora and Bella; 15 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

A visitation was held Aug. 5 at Unger Funeral Chapel in Silverton. Graveside service was held Aug. 6 at Miller Cemetery in Silverton.

Arrangements by Unger Funeral Chapel, Silverton.

Vickie Diane Olsen

Aug. 17, 1954 — July 24, 2016

Vickie passed away at home on July 24 from natural causes.

She was born on Aug. 17, 1954, in Silverton to Maxine and Robert Olsen.

Vickie is survived by her brother Gaylen, niece Ashley Olsen and grand-nephew Brantley Kolin.

A private family interment will be held Aug. 17, followed by a celebration of life at 2 p.m. at the Silverton Elks Lodge.

Arrangements by Unger Funeral Chapel.

Parma Schiel

June 12, 1942 — June 28, 2016

Parma was born in Portland. She attended school in Portland and got a bachelor's degree in psychology and a registered nursing degree. Parma worked at Silverton Hospital as discharge planner and at Salem Clinic as clinic nurse. She attended Salem Alliance, believed in the Holy Scripture and Jesus Christ as her Savior. Parma died peacefully in her home.

She is survived by daughter Britt Hill and grandson Jonah James, who were with her at the time of her death. Parma is also survived by her granddaughter Elizabeth Schmidt; great-granddaughter Everly Schmidt; sister Joy Hawkins; brother Jody (Connie) Brown and many nieces and nephews.

A graveside service was held Aug. 7 at Belle Passi Cemetery in Woodburn.

Arrangements by North Santiam Funeral Service, Stayton.

Marcus Raymond Senn

Aug. 21, 1938 — July 31, 2016

Our beloved Marcus, the holder of the button, was loved so much by many. Playing cards was his game, but he also loved bowling and playing golf. He enjoyed watching football and baseball; he was their biggest fan.

Marcus was born in Mott, North Dakota, to Max and Rose Senn. He had seven siblings: Rosemary, Casper, Charlie ("Chuck"), Eva, Helen, Sally and Katherine. He was the seventh child out of eight. He had many nieces and nephews.

He worked as a gunite foreman for Anthony Pools, which is where he met his beautiful wife Cindy. They were married in 1984 and have been happily married ever since.

They have one son together, Tommy, and five wonderful grandchildren: Scott, Dylan, Trevor, Cynthia, and Brent. Marcus loved them very much. He also had three children from a previous marriage, Kathy, Paulie, and Marcus Jr., whom he missed.

He will be greatly missed by many friends, and loved and admired by his family. He will never be forgotten and will always be missed. He brought so much joy and happiness to his family and friends.

A graveside service was held Aug. 6 at the Union Hill Cemetery in Sublimity.

Arrangements by Unger Funeral Chapel.
