

OBITUARIES

John H. (Jack) Hancock

July 30, 1931 — Sept. 9, 2016

John H. (Jack) Hancock passed away peacefully on Friday, Sept. 9, 2016, at the VA Hospital in Portland, surrounded by his family.

Jack was born on July 30, 1931, in St. Joseph, Missouri, and moved to Salem in 1954 after serving in the army during the Korean War. Jack was a school teacher at Salem Academy and later an Oregon CPA for over 50 years. Jack loved his family and lived his life for them.

Jack was preceded in death by his parents, Irving and Frances Hancock, and his first wife, Starr B. Hancock.

Jack is survived by his wife Marcine; sister Susan; children Jon, Joel (Germa), Mary (Dave) and Sarah (Stan); grandchildren Jeremy (Hensia), Eltimon, David, Alison (Daniel), Andrew (Leah) and Julie (Kyle); and great-grandchildren Emma, Elliott and another due in October. He is also survived by his step-children Dan (Linda), Bernie (Gina), Susan (Brian) and Sally; grandchildren Aaron, Micah, Aly, Jenny and Travis; and great-grandchildren Trace, Terek, Aidan, Madison and Chance.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Union Gospel Mission of Salem and St. Mary's Catholic Church in Mt. Angel.

Services were held at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Mt. Angel with private family burial at Belcrest Memorial Park Cemetery in Salem.

Arrangements by Unger Funeral Chapel in Mt. Angel.

William "Bill" R. Hodson, Jr.

Oct. 22, 1955 — Sept. 10, 2016

William Richard Hodson, Jr. was born in Los Angeles, one of seven children. He was raised for a time in California before moving to Silverton in 1969. Over the years, Bill owned and operated Hodson Roofing with his brother, Steve. He was a family man above all else and adored his grandchildren and children. He enjoyed shopping at garage sales and was an avid collector of many things. He loved sports, especially football, and was a fan of the Los Angeles Rams. Bill will be greatly missed.

He is preceded in death by three siblings.

Bill is survived by mother Barbara; companion of 29 years, Rose Cardiff; children Jeffrey Hodson and Jennifer Hodson; stepchildren Chris Cardiff, Tom Cardiff and Chrystal Liskey; 13 grandchildren; and sisters Chris Oster and Cheri Qualey.

A celebration of Bill's life was held Sept. 17 at St. Paul Catholic Church in Silverton.

Arrangements with Unger Funeral Chapel.

Stanley John Rich

Sept. 22, 1925 — Sept. 13, 2016

Stanley "Stan" Rich, 90, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, Sept. 13, 2016.

Stan was born on Sept. 22, 1925, in Scotts Mills to Almond and Emma (Larson) Rich. He was raised in the Scotts Mills area, and graduated from Silverton High School.

He met and married Elva Marie Pierce, and together they raised their family and resided in Scotts Mills before moving later to Estacada. Stan was a hard working man and, above all else, a family man. He worked as a heavy equipment operator and in construction throughout his life and enjoyed working in Mt. Hood National Forest logging and building roads for a time. Stan was devoted to Elva and his children and enjoyed watching sports, especially attending his children's sports activities throughout the years and later his grandchildren's sporting events. He was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church.

Stan is preceded in death by his parents, his son John, and wife Elva.

He is survived by son Terry; daughter Diana (Jeff) Haga and grandchildren Jacob and Madison; daughter Genie (Dan) Cary and grandchildren Russell and Heath; daughter Linda Rich and grandchildren Cory, Shane, Kevin, Ashley; and many great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, Sept. 23, at Silverton Immanuel Lutheran Church, with visitation one hour prior. Burial will follow at Valley View Cemetery.

Arrangements by Unger Funeral Chapel.

Lois Endresen

Oct. 29, 1926 — Sept. 11, 2016

Lois Endresen, 89, passed away on Sept. 11, 2016, surrounded by her family.

Lois Anne Barnes was born Oct. 29, 1926, to Herbert A. and Anne Barnes in Gresham. She was the middle child of three. Her older brother, Richard, and her younger brother, Robert, both passed away in 2015.

Lois grew up in Gresham, and while in high school there, met her future husband, Arthur Endresen. They were married in Gresham in 1947. The young couple moved to Silverton, where they farmed and raised three children, Mark, Anne and Julie.

After their retirement from farming, Lois and Art traveled across the U.S. and Canada. They spent most summers and some winters at their cabin in the wilderness of British Columbia, Canada, where they did a lot of fishing, four-wheeling, snowmobiling and other outdoor activities. The last few years kept them close to home on the old farm in Silverton, where Lois enjoyed her front porch view, and many visitors. The coffee pot is always on.

Lois is survived by her husband of 69 years, Art; son Mark (Anita); daughters Anne (David Monteith) and Julie (Michael Birch); grandsons Shawn and Hans (Beth); and great-granddaughter Lily Anne-Marie.

A private family service will be held at Mt. Hope Cemetery in the Waldo Hills.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the Silverton Hospital Chaplaincy Program.

Arrangements with Unger Funeral Chapel.

Verniece Meisenheimer

Feb. 10, 1918 — Sept. 9, 2016

Verniece Meisenheimer, 98, passed away in her home in Salem.

She was born on Feb. 10, 1918, to Harry and Alice (Overstreet) Williams in Beaver County, Oklahoma, the youngest of five children. Verniece moved from Oklahoma to Oregon at the age of 17. She graduated from Roosevelt High School in Portland, and attended beauty school in California.

Verniece married LaVaughn "Bud" Meisenheimer in March of 1937 in her sister's house. They had two children, Verlene and Dale. In 1947, the family moved to Silverton.

She enjoyed china painting, taught 4-H, was involved in Marion County home extension, and was an active member of the Silverton First Christian Church.

Verniece is preceded in death by her husband; sisters Arvilla, Anna, Cora Pearl and Olive; son-in-law James; and daughter-in-law, Sally.

She is survived by her daughter, Verlene Beard; son Dale Meisenheimer; grandchildren Mark (Betty) Beard, Bryan Beard, Darin (Ronnie) Meisenheimer and Corey Meisenheimer; great-grandchildren Justin (Hannah) Meisenheimer, Danika (Nick) Turney, Kylee Beard, Katelyn Meisenheimer; Morgan Meisenheimer, Courtney Meisenheimer and Barrett Meisenheimer.

A memorial service will be at 2 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 27, at the Silverton First Christian Church.

The family wishes to thank Pastor Steve Knox of the Silverton First Christian Church, the staff at Willamette Valley Hospice, and the staff at the Willson House in Salem for all their care and support. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Silverton First Christian Church and Willamette Valley Hospice.

Arrangements by Unger Funeral Chapel, Silverton.
