to candidates running for State Senate District 9, State House District 18, Silverton Mayoral and City Council, and Marion County Soil & Water Director at Large in the Nov. 8 general election.

The objective is to inform as many people as possible the positions of each candidate.

While general election tones on a national level often carry a disenchanting vehemence pitched perfectly to turn off voters, Jan emphasized that this local-level interaction is intended to stay focused on ideas and issues.

"We are going to try to keep it harmonious and informative," she said.

Gregg applauded, adding: "That's something we need to get back to."

The candidates will be afforded 5 to 8 minutes to delineate their platform, then audience members will have an opportunity to ask questions.

Jan added that Lee Mercer, a Grange member and community volunteer, will moderate, and he will also pose several questions to the candidates.

Invited candidates and representatives are: State Senate District 9, Rich
