ships, he understands the importance of school tradition, and he creates a school culture that is welcoming and supportive of all students.”

Lieuallen, who came to Silverton after 13 years at McNary High School in Keizer, declined to state a reason for resigning in March, but Bellando said the decision was “a very personal and thoughtful one.”

Bellando said Assistant Superintendent Dandy Stevens will assist Lockett with the transition, providing half-time administrative support and mentoring during the 2017-18 school year. Kirstin Jorgenson, half-time principal at Scotts Mills School, will assume personnel responsibilities for the district office during Stevens’ absence.

“We will be working together as a team to provide Mr. Lockett with the resources and support he needs to be successful in this important role,” Bellando said.

Lockett welcomes his new duties.

“This past year serving as assistant principal for Silverton High School has helped me get to know our students, staff, families and community,” he said. “I’m looking forward to strengthening our team partnerships, building on student success and enhancing the culture at our school.”

Lockett’s transition marks a series of changes at the helms of Silver Falls School District schools in recent years. The district announced in April that Brett Davisson, an assistant principal at West Albany High School, will be the new principal at Silverton Middle School, beginning in August. Davisson previously served as principal at Evergreen School and as an interim principal at Robert Frost School.

A year ago, then principal at Silver Crest/Victor Point, Jamie McCarty, was re-designated as the Victor Point/Evergreen principal following the planned retirements of Bob and Heidi Ostrom. Former Silverton High School Principal Mark Hannan assumed the half-time Silver Crest principal duties along with other district jobs.

Jan, who is the program director for Silverton Together, dropped by Silver Creek Coffee House on Wednesday, May 17, to talk about the derby and other events coordinated through Silverton Together, which along with Izaak Walton League is a major Free Fish Day sponsor. Silverton Kiwanis, Silverton Lions, the city of Silverton and Oregon Fish & Wildlife all plunge into the event to ensure it runs without a snag each year.

This year, it takes place from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, June 3, at the reservoir, where event hosts will be shuttling attendees in throughout the morning and early afternoon. Free shuttles run each half hour until 2 p.m., departing from Silverton Roth’s Safeway, Silverton Historical Museum, Church of the Nazarene and Silverton Grange.

All are welcome to tote their fishing gear and jump on the shuttle. No worries if you have no gear; per usual event sponsors will provide poles, bait and necessary equipment to land that catch. There will also be “fishing buddies” on hand to help with the task.

In fact, Jan said they could always use a few more fishing buddies. If you have a few tips you’d like to offer a youngster or greenhorn, volunteer to be a buddy by calling 503-873-0405.

This event is oriented toward families (kids 12 and younger must be accompanied by an adult) and it’s designed to be fun. Silverton Together is also busy with plans the following weekend. Silverton Garden Tour 2017 takes place 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, June 10, and will visit about eight or nine gardens around town.

The group bills the 3rd annual tour of “Oregon’s Garden City” as one that’s “sure to inspire gardening creativity this spring.”

That’s the idea; see what others have done digging in the dirt and let their cultivated artistry trigger your own ideas.

“We have a lot of homeowners in town who have really nice gardens,” Jan said. “Of course, we can’t have people just go up and knock on the door and say ‘could we look at your garden?’ That’s not the kind of etiquette we want to have.”

The tour provides an opportunity to pick the brains of green thumbs and at their plots as the garden tenders will be on hand to answer questions.

“You are going to see lots of different gardens and lots of different plants,” Jan said.

Garden Tour tickets are $15 in advance; $20 the day of the tour. Tickets can be purchased online at SilvertonTogether.org, at the Silverton Farmers Market, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday at Town Square Park, and the Silverton Together office, 421 S. Water St. On the day of the event, tickets will be available at the welcome booth set up in the parking lot of the former Rite Aid, 333 Westfield St.

A map will be provided, and stamped maps can earn chances at raffle prizes. The tour benefits Silverton Together and the Silverton Garden Club.

Breakfast

Have some hunger a hearty breakfast might heal? Silverton Grange secretary Jan McCorkle also stopped by the chat to herald the grange’s all-you-can-eat pancake breakfast, which takes place from 7 to 10 a.m. Saturday, June 3.

This could provide the perfect pre-reel meal before catching a shuttle to the reservoir for Free Fish Day.

Cost is $5; $10 for families.

Silverton Grange is at 201 Division St. (off S. Water St.) and remember, at shuttle to the reservoir event from there on the half hour that day.

For information about the breakfast, contact Aaron at 503-873-3593, silvertongranger@gmail.com or look up “Silverton Grange #748” on Facebook.

Reminder

Silverton’s Trinity Lutheran Church is holding its 125-year celebration from June 2-4, 500 N. 2nd St. Norm English informed us of this historical event earlier this spring as plans were underway.

The celebration kicks off with a traditional Scandinavian dinner on Friday. Cost is $20 for adults and $10 for ages 12 and younger.

As a refresher, in April Norm noted that the church’s history dates back to the late 19th century when there was an original small structure at the site before a parsonage and a Sunday school building were added later.

The current structure dates back to 1919 with a major renovation taking place in 1971.

Highlights included in the milestone celebration are a historic room dedicated to the church’s saga, featuring some items used over the years. The colorful stained-glass windows are a part of that history and an ongoing feature of the church.

Learn more about the church and event by contacting (503) 873-2635 or visiting www.trinitysilverton.org.
