

Silverton grad Parsons coming to Clackamas from D1 Grand Canyon

BILL POEHLER
STATESMAN JOURNAL

Silverton graduate Alia Parsons is transferring and will play basketball at Clackamas Community College.

The 5-foot-10 wing was on the roster of Grand Canyon University's women's basketball team this year, but did not play and redshirted.

Parsons signed a letter of intent to play basketball at Clackamas on May 14. She will have four years of eligibility remaining.

As a senior at Silverton in 2016, Parsons averaged 21.4 points, 4.6 steals and 3.9 rebounds and led the Foxes to the OSAA Class 5A state championship.

She was named the Mid-Willamette Conference player of the year and first-team Class 5A all-state.

As a junior, she was the Mid-Willamette Conference player of the year after averaging 18 points and 6.5 rebounds per game.

As a sophomore she was first-team all-league after averaging 18.3 points and three steals per game.

Silverton hires 3 head coaches

GARY HOROWITZ
STATESMAN JOURNAL

It's been a busy late spring for Silverton High School athletic director Wade Lockett with the recent hiring of three new head coaches: Josh Craig (football), Jamie McCarty (boys basketball) and Derek McElfresh (boys soccer).

Lockett said all three coaches have similar attributes that made them attractive candidates.

"We want people that teach character. We want people that teach integrity," Lockett said. "Our coaches have to understand that the things that they coach really are an extension of the classroom. We coach these sports and these activities as an avenue to teaching greater lessons."

Craig, who graduated from Silverton in 2009, has big shoes to fill. He replaces John Mannion, who resigned in April and accepted the same position at the new Mountain-side High School in Beaverton. In seven seasons at Silverton, Mannion had a 57-20 record, including league titles in 2014 and 2012, three state semifinal appearances and a runner-up finish in 2014.

Craig previously served as an assistant football coach for the Foxes.

"Coach Craig was an extremely valuable member of coach Mannion's staff," Lockett said.

"We want people that teach character. We want people that teach integrity."

WADE LOCKETT
SILVERTON HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

"Somebody that we believe has all the right qualities of a coach at a high school. He's great with kids and he's been part of a culture that we believe is very good for our kids and for our community, and because that was the case we didn't feel like we needed to go outside of our staff to find somebody new."

McCarty, who takes over for Steve Roth, was boys basketball coach at Stayton from 1998 to 2007 and led the Eagles to seven consecutive league titles and a stretch of 44 consecutive league victories. He is known as an outstanding defensive coach.

Roth was Silverton's boys basketball coach the past three years.

"I would say (McCarty) was one of the, if not the most dominant coach in that classification during the years that he was at Stayton," Lockett said. "He's the consummate teacher."

McElfresh replaces Kyle Calder, who led the Silverton boys soccer program the past three years.

McElfresh was the head girls soccer coach at Silverton from 2006 to 08, and the Foxes earned playoff berths each season.

"The big deal with Derek is he's good for kids," Lockett said. "We know that he has a strong enough background in soccer to be able to lead our kids in a positive direction."
