

Area students join national walkout

Students at Silvertown High School participate in the walkout over gun violence on March 14. The walkout comes one month after the shooting in Parkland, Fla. PHOTOS BY KATE ALLANACH/SPECIAL TO THE STATESMAN

Silvertown High School students join hands in support for stricter gun laws.

Silvertown High School was just one of many school communities across the country who organized a walkout event in response to the Parkland school shooting incident.

One student wears a special shirt for the walkout showing his support for the Parkland school shooting victims.
