USA TODAY NETWORK

While many businesses close on Thanksgiving Day, several Salem-area restaurants are opening.

There are Thanksgiving brunches and traditional Turkey dinners. Some menus include upscale additions like prime rib and others are simply offering the same options as any other day of the year.

Here, listed alphabetically, are Salem's restaurants open on Thanksgiving Day, and also places with to-go offerings so you can still enjoy Thanksgiving at home without cooking.

Adam's Rib Smoke House

Adam's Rib will have brined and smoked turkeys and double-smoked hams for the holiday. Place an order at either location by Friday, November 22 for pick-up on Wednesday, November 27 by 5:00 p.m. Turkeys are $8 per pound and hams are $10 per pound.
