The Ladies of the Maccabees will give a grand ball the evening of Feb 12 at the Commercial Club hall.

Armstrong will hang a Baker City on Friday, unless a stay of execution is forthcoming, which is now considered doubtful.

The many friends of M L Causey will be glad to learn that he is rapidly improving from his recent illness and will soon be at his place of business.

Mr and Mrs H E Gilham, who have been visiting relatives in this city and valley have returned to their home in Dayton wash.

W E Colich, of Summerville, was in the city yesterday. He says the snow there is still staying in places and again there are places where there is a slight insufficiency.

M J Roche, General passenger agent of the Denver Rio Grand system and the Missouri Railway Co, with headquarters in Portland, arrived in the city yesterday. We acknowledge a very pleasant call from the gentleman.

Miss Julia Hatch, field secretary of the Woman's North Pacific Board of Missions of the Presbyterian church, is in the city and will meet the ladies of the church at the manse this afternoon at 2:30.

The Pacific States Telephone Co purchased a two wheel cart from Island City yesterday for the repairman to haul his tools and repairs around town. People had better look out for their cows at night as it is not kept locked.

J E Weaver, the Cove grocerman, was a La Grande visitor yesterday. He reports everything at the city of fruit trees and strawberries in a flourishing condition, and all the people happy and prosperous.

We met J K Wright all rigged out in his war paint and boots yesterday afternoon. We jumped at conclusions immediately and placed an order for a nice hind quarter of "bear meat" but J K said he was not looking for bear meat but a timber claim before Congress repeated the present law.

The skating rink began business last evening at Amory Hall with a fair attendance. This rink is a novelty in a way as there is almost an entire absence of noise. This is caused by the rubber wheels. The proprietors state that the old time wooden wheels are now a thing of the past.

Miss Minna Bauchman, a niece of Mr and Mrs W T Cross, arrived in the city yesterday from Portland, where she has been visiting friends. She will visit here a few days and then return to her home in Baker City. She will be accompanied home by her sister Edith, who is here also visiting Miss Norma Cross.

O O Kincaid, Assistant Superintendent of the Bonanza mine in Baker Co, stopped off in the city yesterday. Mr Kincaid is enroute to Pendleton where he goes to attend the shooting tournament. He states that there are now about eighty men employed at the Bonanza mine and they have attained a depth of 1200 feet. At this depth the ore mills eight-five per cent milling. This is one of the best showings made in any mine in Oregon.

The wheat market seems to be coming up in Chicago. It was reported a half cent higher yesterday.

Marshall Rayburn yesterday morning received an invitation from sheriff H K Brown of Baker County to be present on next Friday morning at 7 o'clock to witness the execution of Pleasant Armstrong, who shot and fatally wounded Miss Minnie Ensminger near Haines on the night of December 25th 1903, arrested the same day. Convicted March 31st 1903.

A Correction

I desire to correct the impression that has gone out, caused by an ad of Ed Geo W Allen as "Manager of the Farmers' Feed Yard." I have never disposed of my interest in the same and am still proprietor and doing business at the old stand.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results." For Sale by all druggists.

Like a Comet
This famous remedy does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.
