Fresh News Items of Local Interest

The little daughter of Mr and Mrs Lee C Henderson is dangerously ill this morning.

You will meet your friends at the Art Exhibit today at the Commercial Club.

R E Smith and O E Harper of the Cove Union Creamery are in the city.

Mr and Mrs G S Berry of Sumnerville are registered at the Foley.

Mr and Mrs O W Williams came up from Elgin yesterday, and will remain for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo Ruckman who have been visiting in Portland and Walla Walla returned last night.

W. P. Caviness has returned from his tour of inspection of the British Columbia country. He was well pleased with the outlook and expects to return about May.

J. S. Houck of the Cove, brought over a load of apples yesterday, which he readily disposed of.

M. H. Wall, who used to live with his family in this city, but now resides in Heavensworth, near Spokane, is in the city on business.

J. D. McKennon, yesterday received an order for two cars of potatoes, and two cars of apples, to be shipped to Missouri. We have often shipped potatoes there, but this is the first shipment of apples. Missouri is a great apple state.

The Simpson and Yates dancing academy is in a flourishing condition. The classes are well attended and the pupils are more than satisfied with the instruction received.

R. J. Body who formerly resided in this city and vicinity, but for several years has been running a meat market in Athens, is reported to be in a very critical condition. He is bedfast, unable to speak, and one kidney is enlarged to twice its normal size, with little hopes of his recovery.

The opportunity was never presented to the citizens of La Grande, to view the master pieces of all the world's artists until now. If you have not, do not fail to visit the exhibition at the Club today.

The ladies of the Degree of Honor will give a hard time social next Monday evening at the L. O. O. F. hall. The price of admission for this special occasion has been reduced to ten cents. A fine will be imposed upon all who attend the social dressed in their other suits. Also take notice that no boiled shirts will be admitted to the hall.

The Art Exhibit which will appear at the Commercial Club Jan. 28, 29 and 30th is meeting with marked success elsewhere. It was presented by the Ladies Club of Pendleton and Baker City last season and was so successful that both these cities have made arrangements to present it again this winter. You cannot afford to miss it. Admission Adults 25 cents children 10 cents.

Easy Pill

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tonic the liver instead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers.
