The Observer received yesterday by mail, direct from the U. S. Census office, a big quarto volume containing 1343 pages. The matter therein is employees and wages.
County Judge Harrison came over from Union last night and adjudged John Ellsworth of unsound mind and he will be taken to the asylum on this morning's early train.
Robert, Ethel and Chas. Palmer Jr. and wife, Harry Hyde came down from Baker City last night to attend the wedding of Miss Nellie Grandy and Sherwood Williams, which takes place in the M. E. Church this evening at 6 o'clock.

BIG LOT FOR PAPER.

Reporter of this Paper was Surprise at the Immense lot of Wall Paper at the Store of Stackland & McLachlen. Still More.

An Observer reporter called yesterday at the paint store of Stackland and McLachlen and found the members of that firm up to their ears in business. They were unpacking and arranging a fresh shipment of wall paper. The shipment seemed to the reporter an unusually large one and brought fourth the question "how long will that shipment of wall paper last this town?"
Mr. Stackland looked up, knocked the icicles from his brow and replied. "This paper will soon all be out of here. This little bunch of paper would not keep us busy two weeks. This is only the first consignment of our spring stock. Don't you know we are the leaders in the paper and paint business in this town?"
Do you suppose that we could keep the number of men we employ the year round on this little sample order? There is only four thousand rolls here. This will not be a patch on our full order. Just call again when it all gets here and then make remarks about big piles of paper. One thing you might mention to your readers, is, that we would be pleased to have them call and see this lot. There are many new and handsome designs here now and we will gladly show them the very latest styles in wall decorations. When they get ready to paper we have something to tell them which will interest them. It is something absolutely new, and means much to those who use wall paper."
The reporter had heard all he could remember and hurried away before he made any more raw breaks or ask any more foolish questions.

"AN EYE ON HUBBY"

The Robert Buchanan company opened up in Loyalton Monday night to $120 house, the biggest turnout ever accorded a traveling troupe in Loyalton. The play was good all the way through, and the audience was kept laughing from the time the curtain rung up till the finish. Each actor seemed especially adapted for the character assumed and Mr Buchanan as the "hubby" of Mrs Brown was true to life, and Mr Buchanan, singing some good comic songs, and he is "no slouch" on the violin, Annie Girard, the leading lady is a very good actress and an acquisition to any company.—Loyaltonan Loyalton, Cal.

No Sense of Proportion.

The young man who had spent his efforts for several years without result in studying art was talking with his practical uncle, who had patiently told the tale.
"I'm afraid," said the young artist, "I know I haven't made much of a go of it, but I don't think you ought to tell me to try something else. You know, it's best to put all your eggs in one basket and watch that basket."
"Well, that may be, Charlie; but if I remember it as how foolish it is to put all your eggs around one basket."
"Yes," said the uncle.

A Game of Skill.

Did you ever try throwing cards in a bath? It is a great fun. Take an old bath tub, place it on the floor, then let the players in turn stand at a distance from it, say ten or twelve feet. Use an ordinary pack of cards and toss them one by one in the tub as far as possible. A prize to him who gets in the greatest number adds to the interest.
After a little practice it is remarkable how accurate one may become.
