GOVERNORS OF OREGON.

Least the energies of the republicans in Oregon be cooled by over confidence and ambitious men think there is no danger in fomenting strife among republicans, the following list of the governors of Oregon with the politics of each gives for consideration:

Dem John Whiteaker, 1859-62
Rep Addison C Gibbs, 1862-66
R, Geo. L. Woods, 1866-1870.
D. LaFayette Groues, 1870 1877
D. Stephen F. Chadwick 1877 78
D. Walter W. Thayer, 1878 82
R Ganas F. Moody, 1882 1887
D. Sylvester Pennoyer, 1887 90
R. Wm. P. Lord, 1895 1899
R. T. T. Geer, 1899 1903
D. Geo. E. Chamberlain, 1903—

Croves was elected governor twice but before the expiration of his second term, was chosen U. S. Senator, and Secretary of State Stephen F. Chadwick, a democrat, became governor. Pennoyer, a democrat, was elected twice and filled two terms as governor.

When Governor Chamberlain shall have completed his present term, Oregon will have been a state 48 years, 23 of which the democrats have held the Governor's office.

The Baker City Democrat states that it is not unlikely that the Democratic State Convention will be held in Portland on the same date that the republican convention meets.

This rather smacks of fusion, judging from past history in this state, when the democratic and populist conventions met at the same place and on the same dates and nominated Will R. Kine for governor and divided the balance of the state ticket. Well, really there is not so much difference between Oregon democrats and republicans. A great many of the democrats are going to vote for Roosevelt. They are with the republicans on the Panama question and about the only point of difference in their platform will be the wording of the tariff clause. To make a complete success of the Lewis and Clark Fair it is desirable that the state work in perfect harmony. Now if the democrats

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor—Garland, Texas, News, has written a factious congratulatory to the man letter of Chamberlain's Remedy, as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and are giving it to all of them with

WE TALK IT OVER
as slowly as we do our meat. We know that the average housewife likes to save on her meat bills and we try to secure her trade by selling just as low as self preservation will permit.

FOR THAT REASON
steaks, chops, roasts, etc. can always be obtained at our store a little lower than our nearest competitor. As to the quality of our meats we will let our large number of satisfied customers speak.
